

Dallas girls bow to St. John's

Dallas cagerettes dropped a close 44-40 game to St. John's girls last Tuesday night at West Side Tech to lose their chance to go into the PIAA playoffs with Nanticoke.

Led by Robyn Fry's six goals and a foul for 13 points, the Dallas five led 12-10 at the end of the first quarter but fell behind 24-17 at the half due to the hot shooting of the Johnnies' Susan Brown. Susan Brown dropped in 16 straight points to pace the Pittston team in their four-point win over the Back Mountain five. She ran up a total of 28 for the entire game giving the up-river five a 32-27 lead going into the final quarter. She made 10 of 10 from the charity stripe and put in nine from the court. Teammate Karen Mikita went scoreless from the floor but also made good 10 of 10 from the foul line.

Bethanne Delaney was second high for Dallas with four from the court and one from the free line for a total of nine. Kandi Karuza picked up seven, Brenda Stella five, Cindy Lefko four, and Barb Miller, one from the field for two points.

Standing, coach Karen Klassner; Pam Collins, Wyoming; Joan Morris, West Pittston; Janet Murray, Wilkes-Barre; Sue Morris, West Pittston; Majorie Henry, East Dallas; Jan Morris, West Pittston; Barbara Klein, Trucksville; Virginia Spohrer, Wilkes-Barre; Cornelia Conyngham, Trucksville; and Clare McCarthy, Dallas.

WS girls basketball has 8-9 season

The Wyoming Seminary girls basketball team posted an 8-9 record in team play this year. They also recorded a tournament win capturing the Wilkes Barre CYC's McGrane tourney.

The team, although containing many Back Mountain players, ironically found its downfall in Back Mountain competition. The Sem girls were unable to register a win against either Dallas or Lake-Lehman, although applying both teams twice.

Tunkhannock joggers invite public on Easter

An Easter-Sunrise Jogging Celebration will be held in Tunkhannock beginning at 6 a.m. Easter morning. The Tunkhannock Track Club invites interested, experienced runners to participate.

The route is 11 miles over one of the highest mountains in Wyoming County, "one mile for each of the disciples." Only runners with daily minimum runs of four miles for the past two months are considered qualified to join the group.

But the Easter-Sunrise jogging celebration will not be a race. The group will stay together and run for the joy of it.

The run will begin at the Prince Hotel, Tunkhannock, and end at the same spot.

For further information contact Sid Lyons or Haydn Gilmore in Tunkhannock.

Gilmore said: "Don't forget that Peter and John were out running that first get-up Easter morning."

Zapoticky

Lozier to cheer

Two Back Mountain residents have been named to the varsity cheerleading team at College Misericordia, according to team coach Geraldine Wall.

They are Noreen Zapoticky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Zapoticky, 100 Perrin Avenue, Shavertown, and Debbie Lozier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lozier, R.D. 4, Allas.

Both girls joined the nine-member team this semester and have been appearing with the team at Highlander basketball games.

Both girls are freshmen at Misericordia. Zapoticky is majoring in Nursing, while Lozier is an elementary Education major.
