

Lake-Lehman cops two regional titles

AGNEW DECISIONS—The Knights' Doug Agnew copped the regional title at 119-lb. by decisioning Leitzel of Lewisburg 12-11 in a back-and-forth bout that went down to the wire. Above, Agnew takes control after reversing Leitzel.

The Lake-Lehman Knights produced two of the three District II champs in the Class B Regional Tournament last Saturday at Williamsport. Steve Klemunes, 112 lbs., and Doug Agnew, 119 lb. brought home the titles for the Back Mountain School. Hanover's Tom Pape, 95 lb., brought his weight class crown home to the Hawkeyes.

Crestwood's Bob Gaetano lost a heart breaker when he was turned over by Campbell, Selingsgrove in 5:31 for his first loss in 23 bouts.

The Knights Jack Zaleskas lost a 7-3 decision in the semi-finals to Athens Doug Rhodes, then came back in the consolations to take third place in the Regionals, as did West Side Tech's Mike Petroski. Neither one needed the win to go to States at Penn State this weekend, however as the first four wrestlers in each weight class advance in the finals which begin Friday night.

In the preliminaries last Friday night, Steve Klemunes decisioned Ray Harmon, LT, 15-1. Doug Agnew, last year's regional runner up, won on a forfeit, and Jack Zaleskas, 126 lb., outwrestled Dan Wood, Montoursville, 7-3. Mike Petroski, 105 lb., WST, moved to the semi-finals by taking a 4-2 decision from Jim Alteri, LT. Five Hanover grapplers moved into the semi-finals on Saturday afternoon.

Saturday afternoon, Pape, H, moved ahead by decisioning Dave Kyle, Wallenpaupack, 3-0, then went in front in the finals by taking Mark Bennett, Athens, 6-0.

Bob Gaetano, CR, went against Mike Petroski, WST, and with a 4-4 count at the end of three, the bout went into overtime. Gaetano clamped Petroski in 23 seconds of the thirs overtime period. In the finals, Saturday night, the match was a close 5-4 when Jim Campbell, Selingsgrove, took Gaetano in a surprise move and pinned him in 5:31.

Steve Klemunes used a takedown and a reversal against Rex Lutz, Montoursville, who had two escapes, to give Klemunes the bout 4-2.

In the finals Klemunes met Jeff Wagner, Mifflinburg, and took the bout by a decisive 10-4 score.

Agnew pinned Bill Bickert, Bloomsburg, in 2:47 in the afternoon to advance to the evening finals. He and Jim Leitzel engaged in a touch-and-go bout. Agnew went out in front by two on a takedown, Leitzel reversed, then Agnew countered with a reversal. Again Leitzel reversed and picked up 3 more points on a near fall. In the second period, Agnew reversed Leitzel, Leitzel followed suit, then Agnew reversed Leitzel once more. With the score 9-8, Leitzel going into the third period, Leitzel escaped for one; Agnew took him down for two but Leitzel escaped again.

KLEMUNES WINS—Lake-Lehman's Steve Klemunes attempts to roll over Jeff Wagner of Mifflinburg in the finals last Saturday at Williamsport. The 112 lb. Knight won 10-4 to cop the class title.

With less than a minute remaining, Agnew took down Leitzel once more and held him down to win the bout 12-11.

Zaleskas lost on a 7-3 decision by Rhodes of Athens. In the consolation bout, he decisioned Larry Means, Lewisburg, 1-0, to take third place.

Doug Agnew held his undefeated record for the season coming home with a 17-0 record. Bob Gaetano had a 22-0 record for the season until he was stopped by Campbell.

Eleven wrestlers from District II will enter the State Finals this weekend, three from Lake-Lehman; one from Crestwood; one from West Side Tech; and six from Hanover.
