In cooperation with the Red Cross, the Harveys Lake Women's Service Club will sponsor a blood drive May 29, at the Lake Lehman High School Gym from 1-6 p.m.

All churches and residents of the Lake Lehman area and surrounding businesses are asked to contribute to the drive. You may be a donor if you are between the ages of 17 and 65. Seventeen-year olds need parental consent.

Eugene L. Kocker, 54, Oakdale Road, Johnson City, New York, died Sunday morning in Johnson City. He was the son of the late Arthur and Jane Kocker of Harveys Lake.

He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. David Skrabalak of Endicott, New York, and a son, Wendell, of Alpha, New Jersey, and four grandchildren; brothers, Carleton Kocker of Harveys Lake, Arthur Kocker of Maitland, Florida, and sister, Mrs. Adriene Collis, Harveys Lake. Funeral services were held Wednesday in Union, New York.

The Harveys Lake Women's Service Club held a Mother-Daughter covered dish buffet at the regular May meeting. Co-chair women Mrs. Margaret Cauda and Mrs. Ruth Richards, handled the dinner arrangements with a special thanks going to their committee.

Mark Caccia, a student at Lake Lehman High School, entertained with a demonstration of his skill in magic. Before our very eyes Mark made a dove appear and disappear as well as many other fascinating trins. Several people from the audience joined Mark on stage to inspect some of the equipment, but returned to their seats in awe.

Ten potted plants were given for different categories, two of which went for three generations in attendance. Mrs. Taft Truska presided over the business meeting that followed. This concluded the regular meeting of the club until next September.

Webelo Troop 331 enjoyed a 20 mile hike and campout on South Mountain this past weekend. The highlights of the trip was a "night hike" by the troop across the top of South Mountain without using adult scout leaders. Troop 331 wishes to thank the hunting club, 20 Limited, for the use of their property. Troop members were: Albert Kerns, Bobby Garinger, Greg Adams, Chip Austin, Ronnie Swire, Mike Young and Glenn Steinhauer. The troop was accompanied by Scout Master Joseph Kerns, and parent volunteers, John Adams, Pete Austin, and "Grandfather" Bob Traver.

Circle your calendar - May 15 and 16: The Harveys Lake Women's Service Club will hold a rummage sale at the Lutheran Church, Sandy Bottom. Any items to be donated are to be taken to Taft's Market not later than May 14.

Bowling league holds banquet

The Dallas Woman's Club bowling league recently held their banquet at the Irem Temple Country Club. The trophy winner for first place was the Shawnee team, which includes Marie Yozviak, Louise Menapace, Pat Lancio and Ann Jordan, captain. The runner-up team was the Sioux, with Connie Brongo, Louise Edwards, Bettie Hanna and Jeanne Richards, captain.

Jeanne Richards received the high series trophy. Ann Whiting won for high average and Ann Jordan for high game. Ellen Jeffes received the plaque for most improved bowler.

Favors for each bowler were small glass Indians made by the decorating committee, consisting of Kate Newhart, Betty Brace and Sharon Wallace. Irene Katyl presented each bowler with their horoscope which she worked up and read some further interesting information concerning each person.

The new league officers for 1975-76 are Kate Nehart, president; Pat Lancio, vice-president; Louise Edwards, treasurer and Jo Berkey, secretary.

Any woman interested in joining the bowling league can do so by becoming a member of the junior or senior Woman's Club, and by contacting Mrs. Charles Berkey. The league will resume bowling on Thursday, September 4.

"Now is the time for Gelusil to come to the aid of all Little Leager's parents, managers, coaches." The baseball season has begun and to start off the 1975 season, Lehman Cardinals defeated Lehman Giants 8-1. It kills me to write that, but it's true.

Several persons asked me why in last week's column I didn't mention my daughter's Adele birthday and Communion party. The truth-I was so exhausted my brain could not function. With 16 out of town guests and 22 friends, it's amazing how I can even write about it now.

The funny part was that most of these 38 people stayed in our kitchen. I don't know if they were after my body or the food. I soon learned the answer when I placed the food in the dining room.

Among the out of towners were James, Judy, Debbie, Judy Lynn and James, Jr. Amalfitano and Joe Wing all of Lynbrook, N.Y. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Valenti, Southampton, N.Y. and Tony, Terry, Roseanna and James Nuciforo, Brooklyn, N.Y.

Our sincerest thanks to Gerri and Leo Bartz for lending us their home for some of our guests. Believe me when I brag about our beautiful neighbors.

Congratulations to Bob and Peg Cartier whose daughter Cheryl presented them with their first grandchild - a boy.

Kathy Askew and Bobby Di Giosa have recently returned from a fabulous vacation in Hawaii.

At the Dallas Juniors Woman Bike-A-Thon, one of our neighbors Mr. Anesi returned pledges totaling $300. Great work!

Belated greetings to Lenny Burke who celebrated his sixth birthday April 28 with a party for all his kindergarten classmates at the Lake Elementary.

Matt and Barbara Evans have been floating on cloud nine since their daughter gave birth to a son.

Sorry to learn that Kathy Barlow was a medical patient at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

Best wishes to Karen Iwanowski who received the Sacrament of Holy Communion at Gate of Heaven Church along with family and friends. A dinner party was later held in her honor and in honor of Ray Jr.'s ninth birthday.

May 2, a birthday celebration was held at the Ambassador Restaurant in honor of Mary Weir's 'umpteenth' birthday. I don't want to say it to loud, but Eleanor Monges was a case for "Rosie the wiper-upper."

Tom Yoniski, Jr. son of Tom and Jane, celebrated his tenth birthday with a dinner party. Attending were Billy Jones, Doug Osborne, Chuck Batka and Ray Iwanowski. Rick Angelico, son of Oak Hill's favorite people, broke the Lake Lehman track record in discus throwing with a 45.4 ft. throw.

Mrs. Carmela Valenti, Southampton, N.Y. enjoyed a stay with her son Vince Correale and family. While here she traveled to Carbondale to visit friends and relatives.

Monday evening, several women of our area attended an interesting discussion at the home of Ozzie and Shirley Osborne, where neighbor Joseph Red' Jones, candidate for county commissioner outlined his platform.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Namath journeyed from Waverly, N.Y. to visit their daughter Marianne Cleary and family.

Three women from our area will be hostesses at the Altar and Rosary's 18th annual birthday tea, Thursday evening. Gerri Kerkowski and Alyce Ritts will host the birthday tables and Bridgette Correale the April table. Belated wedding congratulations to Ted and Olga Kostrabala and Jack and Mary Gesmundo. Both couples celebrated wedding anniversaries April 30.

Lehman Township Supervisors will conduct their monthly meeting Monday, May 12, at the Lehman Fire Hall at 8 p.m.

Better late than never - birthday greetings to Allen Michaels whose big day was May 1, Paul Onzik, May 3, Annemarie Rempiewicz, May 3 and Tom Lynch, May 6.

Friday, Gate of Heaven students do not have school Happy Mother's Day - if you know what I mean.

Yes, I too have a birthday. April 30 I drowned my years in a large chocolate cream pie - What a way to grow older and fatter.
