

Back Country

by Mike Polk
Mr. and Mrs. Brainerd Daniels, Jr., Mt. Zion, have announced the birth of a son in Nesbitt Hospital on May 1. This is their fourth child. Mrs. Daniels is the former Miss Nancy Carpenter, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy Carpenter, Wyoming. Mr. Daniels is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brainerd Daniels, Sr., Mt. Zion. Both mother and son were coming along nicely at press time.

Mrs. Marjorie Meade, Sutton Creek Road, who was injured in a fall at home a fortnight ago, took a turn for the worse and was admitted to Wilkes-Barre General Hospital last week. She is reported in an improved condition at the hospital. She is the former Miss Margaret Baird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Baird of town.

Joseph Perry, Jr., son of Mrs. Faye Perry, Carverton, was admitted to Nesbitt Hospital Saturday as a medical condition.

Mrs. Anna Zarzecki and daughter, Miss Viola Zarzecki, Wyoming; Mrs. Hedwig Wyberski, Dallas; Mrs. Louise Yakowski and children Frank, Anna, Christopher, Heidi, Julianna and Kimberly of Bodle Road, Carverton, spent the weekend in Berkeley Heights, N.J., where they visited Mrs. Zarzecki's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zarzecki. The latter's daughter, Miss Norma Ann Zarzecki, was a member of the first communion class Sunday morning.

United Methodist Women of Carverton Methodist Church will hold a Mother and Daughter covered dish supper Tuesday night at 6:30 in the church social rooms. All mothers and daughters of the church are invited to attend. Mrs. Doris Stearn is president of the UMW at Carverton.

Schedule of masses at St. Francis' Cabrini Church, Carverton, and Blessed Sacrament Church, Centermoreland, has been announced by Rev. Thomas Croghan, pastor, for this weekend as follows: Blessed Sacrament - Sunday morning at 10:30; at St. Francis - Masses Saturday at 4:30 and 6:30 p.m.; Sunday, 7, 9, 11:30 a.m. and 5 in the afternoon. Religious instructions will be given after the 9 o'clock mass at St. Francis and after the 10:30 mass in Centermoreland.

Friends of Leon Van Tuyle of Mt. Zion will be pleased to learn he is coming along nicely at Nesbitt Hospital. He suffered a heart seizure Friday but was reported doing well as we went to press.

Carverton Grange 557 will meet in the Grange Hall Monday night at 8 with Stanley Krzanowski, master, in charge. Plans will be finalized for the serving of dinners at the hall on Primary Election Day, May 20. All members are asked to attend.

The Mother and Daughter covered dish supper of United Methodist Women of the Orange Methodist Church will be held tomorrow night, beginning at 6, in the church social rooms. Mrs. Mary Emmanuel is president.

Protestant Men's Association of the Greater Pittston Area will meet Monday night at 8 in Carverton Methodist Church.

Paul Button, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Button, Orange, is able to get around again following an injury received while swimming. Despite the injury, Paul turned in a nice performance at the third base position for the O-C Yankees Friday in their opening game against Noxen.

Schedule of services for Sunday in the three United Methodist Churches, which comprise the Centermoreland Charge, were announced as follows by Rev. Richard Jagger, pastor: East Dallas, morning worship at 9; Sunday School at 10; Dymond Hollow, morning worship at 10:15; Sunday School at 11:15; Centermoreland, Sunday School at 10:15; morning worship at 11:15.

The name of Michael Ondish was unintentionally omitted from the list of players for the O-C Phillies major team in last week's issue.

Family Night supper will be held Saturday evening at 6:30 in Dymond Hollow Methodist Church.

Mrs. Hazel Reeves, wife of Rev. Truman Reeves, pastor of Centermoreland Baptist Church, returned home Saturday after undergoing surgery of both feet last week at Lawndale Community Hospital, Philadelphia. Her condition is much improved.

A religious motion picture, "A Thief In The Night," will be shown tonight at 7:30 in Centermoreland Baptist Church. The film will replace the missionary meeting usually held Thursday nights.

Cottage prayer meeting of Centermoreland Baptist Church was hosted Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. Gloria Campbell at Beau-mont.

Dorrance Byron Headley, Jr., programmer for IBM in Los Angeles, Calif., left Sunday afternoon via plane for Chicago to pursue further studies after spending four days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dorrance Headley, Sr., Centermoreland. Kevin Gilpin, son of Mr.

and Mrs. James Gilpin, Centermoreland, observed his seventh birthday anniversary on Saturday.

Sunday's schedule of services at Centermoreland Baptist Church has been announced as follows: Sunday School at 10; morning worship at 11; Youth Group and Adult Bible Classes will meet Sunday evening at 6:30; evening service at 7:30.

United Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Centermoreland Church will sponsor a Mother and Daughter supper in the church social rooms Saturday night at 7:30. Miss Cindy Weaver is counselor.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dixon and children Shellene and Daron of Thurston Hollow and Miss Kimberly Bedford of Orange have arrived safely at Thousand Oaks, Calif., following a cross country motor trip to visit the former's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Bedford.

Mrs. John Baller, Jr., Crown Hill, entertained at a variety shower last week in honor of her sister, Miss Rita Panaway of Plains, whose marriage to Richard Lupinski, Wilkes-Barre, will take place Saturday, May 24, in St. Joseph's RC Church, Hudson. Guests numbered 40.

They'll be playing for all the marbles tomorrow evening at 6 when the two hometown teams, the O-C Yankees and the O-C Phillies, meet in the first of four meetings between the local teams this season, on the Orange Little League diamond. Phillies will be the home team for tomorrow's game, which is expected to attract a capacity crowd from both townships. Next meeting of the two local entries in the Bob Horlacher Memorial Little League will be on May 23.

Work is progressing nicely on the building being erected by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Zarnoch of Orange on Sickler's Hill. The building will house a full line of motorcycles and related equipment.

Work also has been started by Elmer Reese on a laundromat on the Demunds Road, just over the county line on what was formerly known as Washko's Grove.

Members of Girl Scout Troop 712, which meets in Carverton Methodist Church rooms, are working for merit badges. Nine members of the troop, working for merit badges in cooking, put on a roast beef dinner at the church last week.

Among the guests were Rev. and Mrs. Paul Bauer, Miss Laura Watkins and Miss Cindy Linker of the Penns Woods Girl Scout Council, and Mrs. Lorraine Stibgen, who has rendered much volunteer service to the troop. Mrs. Carol Metz was in charge, assisted by Mrs. Joan Grimm. Girl Scouts, who planned and cooked the dinner as part of their cooking badge requirements, are Donita Grimm, Colleen Campbell, Judy Krispin, Pam Krispin, Judy Luke, Laura Stibgen, Theresa Sudnick, Tete and Debbie Baseski.

Mrs. Frank Zarnoch of Orange is handling sales of poppies in Franklin Township this year. She is a member of American Legion Auxiliary Unit 672 of Dallas, which together with the Dallas Legion Post, are sponsoring the poppy sale. Proceeds will go towards aiding disabled veterans in various hospitals.

Confraternity of Christian Doctrine of St. Francis Cabrini Church, Carverton, and Blessed Sacrament Church, Centermoreland, held a successful rummage sale last weekend.

THIS WEEK ONLY

LEES

NEW YORK CARPET SHOWROOM COMES TO OWEN WILLIAMS FLOOR FASHIONS

15% TO 26% SAVINGS

ON LEES CARPETING

Exclusive appearance, all this week. See the largest assortment of Lee's Carpeting in Wyoming Valley.

Lee's entire cast of carpeting, including plushes, shags, twists, sculptured designs, in more than 600 dazzling colors, will be on display in our showroom.

Owen Williams
Floor Fashions, Inc.
32-38 W. UNION ST.
KINGSTON, PA. 18704

Open Daily 9:00 to 9:00 Saturday 'Til 5:00

288-6536

★ Excavating
★ Black Topping
★ Septic Systems
Installed
Cleaned
Repaired
★ Sewer Hookups
★ Hauling
(All Types)
A.G. COOLBAUGH
Lockville Rd. Harding
333-4535 388-6579

WONDERFUL GIFTS FOR MOTHER
Mother's Ring (24 Hour Delivery)
Includes Three Stones
10 kt. White or
Yellow Gold
NOCERA'S
Exeter Jewellers
FREE PARKING
Open Daily 9:30 A.M. 'Til 6 P.M.
Thurs. & Fri. 9:30 A.M. 'Til 9 P.M. Opticians

GIANT MARKETS
The Correct Price Of
FRESH STRAWBERRIES
Appearing in our circular from today's newspaper
SHOULD READ
49¢ PINT BASKET