Raymond Kadurka, Jr. is spending the summer vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kadurka, Sr., Orange, after completing his junior year of study for a physical ed. degree at Stroudsburg State College. He is a 1971 graduate of Dallas Area High School and studied at Wilkes College before transferring to Stroudsburg.

Belated congratulations are extended to Mrs. Helen Jones of Centermoreland, who observed her 80th birthday anniversary on May 21.

This week's brass ring for a free ride on the Back Country Merry Go Round goes to Karl and Helen Besteder of Centermoreland, who continued an annual custom in tidying up the grounds surrounding the veterans' honor roll in Centermoreland. The honor roll took on a spanking clean appearance with geraniums and dusty millers adding a Spring touch to the highly manicured lawn.

Incidentally, the flag flying from the mast at the Centermoreland honor roll is a new one and was donated for the honor roll by Mrs. Helen Jones of Centermoreland. It was the same flag presented to Mrs. Jones at the time of the funeral of her late son, John, who served for five years with the Army in World War II.

United Methodist Women of the Carverton Charge met Tuesday.

Fanti's Pond is a favorite spot for fishermen these summer days and nights. Numerous catches of calico bass, blue gills and catfish have been reported. The Rev. and Mrs. Richard Jagger of Centermoreland are attending the annual Wyoming Conference sessions of the Methodist Church being held this week end at Elm Park Methodist Church in Scranton. Rev. Mr. Jagger will be ordained a full elder of the church at services Saturday evening in Elm Park Methodist Church with Bishop James Ault of the Philadelphia Area presiding.

Friends of Ted Wilson of East Dallas will be pleased to hear he is coming along nicely at home following a stay in Nesbitt Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Major of Centermoreland are spending a week at their summer cottage in Canada.

Mrs. A. Zajkowski and daughter Ann and Mrs. J. Parra of Manville, N.J. have returned after visiting the former's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dorrance, Sr., Orange.

Congratulations are extended to Misses Janice Hislop of Orange; Cyndi Ayers of Centermoreland and Colette Feeeny of Shavertown. They were rated "Superior" winners in the National Piano Teachers' Guild Auditions. Each National Winner prepared a program of ten piano pieces from memory and presented them before the nationally known pianist, Dr. Norma Aughter of Texas, in auditions held at Wilkes College, Wilkes-Barre. All three are presently studying piano with Harold L. Hoover of Orange, who received his bachelor of science degree in music education at commencement exercises at Wilkes College last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Earl, Sr., Mt. Zion, motored to West Chester State College on Monday where their son, John Earl, is undergoing therapy for leg injuries received while taking part in football practice at West Chester State. John returned to West Chester after several weeks at home here. He also plans to pursue summer studies at West Chester State.

Wesley Lewis of Mt. Zion will represent the three churches of the Carverton Charge at the annual Wyoming Conference sessions of the church being held this week end in Elm Park Methodist Church. With both pastors, Rev. Paul Bauer of the Carverton Charge and Rev. Richard Jagger of the Centermoreland Charge at Conference, members of the Gideons will preach in all six area Methodist Churches Sunday morning.

Confraternity of Christian Doctrine of St. Frances Cabrini Church, Carverton, and Blessed Sacrament Church, Centermoreland, will meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 at the Centermoreland Church.

Sunday masses at St. Frances Cabrini Church as announced by Rev. Thomas J. Croghan, pastor, will be offered at 7, 9, 11:30 a.m. and 5 in the afternoon. Masses also will be offered at St. Frances Saturday afternoon at 4:30 and 6:30. In Blessed Sacrament Church, Centermoreland, Sunday morning mass will be offered at 10:30.

Week end golfers were out in full swing last week end at Orange Golf Course despite some showers that interrupted play for a time Sunday. The local course continues to attract larger numbers as the season progresses.

Some nice improvements were made during the past night at Emmanuel's Garage in Orange, adding a progressive touch to the business center. The parking area in front of the garage received a new black-topping and new garage doors replaced the old ones.

Congratulations are extended to Miss Virginia Dorrance of Demunds Road, who received her bachelor of science degree in psychology at recent commencement exercises of Kings College, Wilkes-Barre. She is a 1971 graduate of Dallas Area High School.

Thomas Earl, Jr. is home for the summer vacation from Edinboro State College. He will return to one of his first loves - as a radio announcer for Station WILK, Wilkes-Barre, for the summer, then will enter West Chester State College for his final semester of study for a teaching degree. He studied engineering for two years at Penn State before entering Edinboro State. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs.

Thomas Earl, Sr., Mt. Zion.

Mrs. Millard Beatty and son, Millard, Jr. of Centermoreland returned Monday after visiting her mother, Mrs. Adelaide Hollman, in Village Green, Pa. on Sunday. On Saturday they attended a wedding at Albright College, Reading.

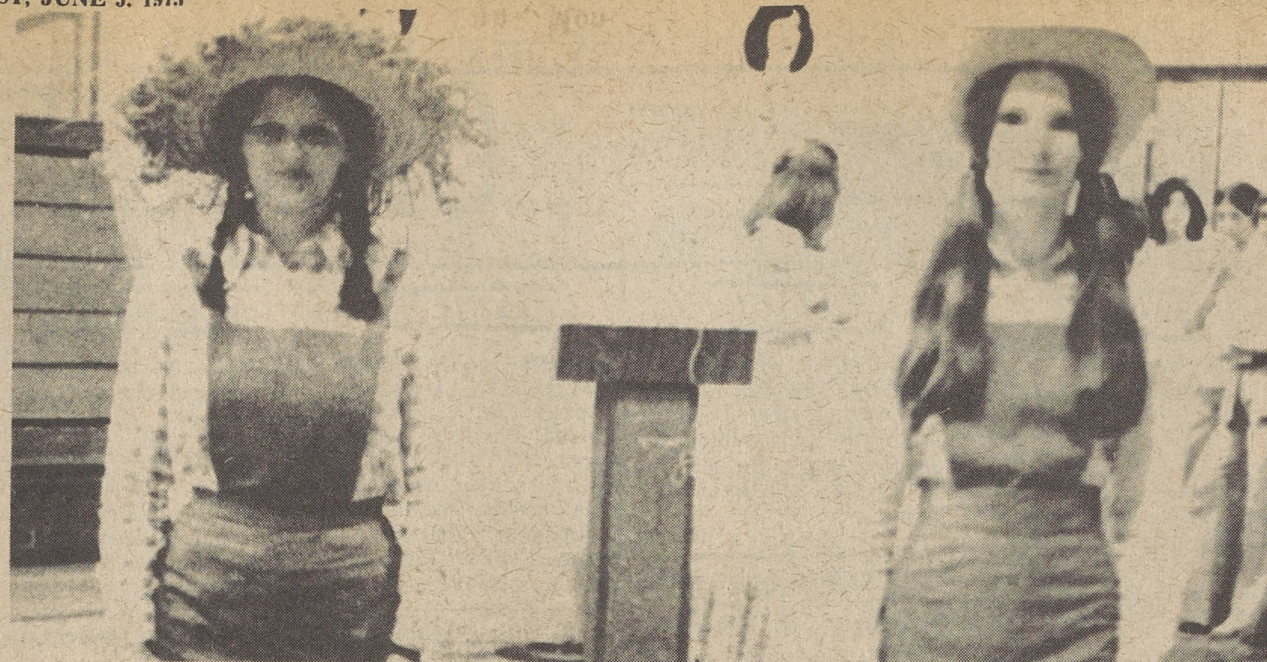

A bible study discussion group began Tuesday evening in Centermoreland Methodist Church and will continue for six sessions on alternate Tuesday nights under the leadership of Rev. Richard pastor. Under discussion and study is "First Letter To Timothy." Next session is scheduled for Tuesday night, June 17.

Announced schedule of "memorial" masses at St. Frances Cabrini Church, Carverton, has been announced for this week end by Rev. Father Croghan as follows: Saturday afternoon at 4:30, mass for Benjamin Kasmark; 6:30, mass for Rev. Father Peter Kane. Sunday morning masses: at 9 for Patrick Healy; at 11:30 for John Tibus. A memorial mass for Matthew Albowicz will be offered Sunday morning at 10:30 in Blessed Sacrament Church, Centermoreland.

Interest in Little League baseball was running high as this edition went to press with Dick Hislop's Orange-Centermoreland Yankees in a three-way battle for first half honors in the Robert Horlacher Memorial League. The Yankees ended first half play in a tie with Beaumont and Noxen and were participating in playoff games for first half honors after the team had administered a second defeat to Beaumont to bring on the three-way tie. Yankees played Noxen on Saturday in the first game but it was called after three innings because of rain and was rescheduled for Monday. Winner was slated to oppose Beaumont, which drew the bye, for first half honors.

Mother and daughter communion breakfast will be held Sunday morning after the 9 o'clock mass. Tickets may be secured from Joseph Buznis or Mrs. Marge Peters at Blessed Sacrament Church or from Leonard Krispin or Stanley Dorrance at St. Frances Church.

Congratulations to Nikki Belasco who graduated from Wyoming Seminary. Students at Gate of Heaven will enjoy their school picnic, Friday June 6 at Ghosttown in The Glen. My feet are already aching and I haven't told them we were going, yet.

Laurie Angelicola will honor her birthday June 7 with a slumber party for several of her friends.

As I slowly picked myself off the ground, I realized that my little league baseball team, Lehman Giants, really won! With the aid of Jeff Drugotch's grand slam homerun and the team's togetherness, not to brag about my son's pitching,

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Buss, Shavertown, spent Memorial Day week-end in Leighton, Pa. visiting friends Mr. and Mrs. Steve Barille.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riegel Harris Hill Rd., have returned from camping at Hidden Lakes, Sweet Valley.

Mrs. Fred Buss and sons Mark and Mathew Shavertown, will leave

It's costly for us when our team wins, my son telephones long distance to grandparents and uncles, then gives a play by play description.

And if that isn't enough, I bent the horn on my husband's car, threw the lights out of whack, disconnected the signal lights, and all I did was press the car's horn. Yes, Vin wants to disconnect a few of my parts.

Kingston Twp.

June 8 to visit Mrs. Buss's sisters, in Wichita, Kansas and also attend her nephew's wedding. She and her sons will then leave to visit her parents in Valentine, Nebraska.

Dr. Glen A. Olds, president of Kent State University, was the principal speaker.

Mrs. Gordon Austin of Shavertown returned home from visiting her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Jones and family, Catasaugua, Pa.
