 Condolences to Bill and Irene Michaels upon the death of Bill's dad this past week.

 For the weekend, the Kishkill's entertained Mr. and Mrs. Rojack of Brooklyn, New York.
 Belated greetings to Ray Drugotch whose umpteenth birthday was June 17.
 Women and children ages 10 and older are still needed to help pattern 22-month Ann Sevinsky of Idetown. An hour and a half every other week is all the time that is required. If enough women volunteer, the time can be reduced to a half hour every other week. The exercises are not difficult or strenuous. Please call Lorraine Leonard 675-0254 for scheduling.
 Freckled-face Ricky Ritts was accidentally hit on the nose by a baseball, but fortunately everything looked okay after we revived Alice. It seems these things hurt us parents more than they hurt the child.
 Many many thanks for the numerous empty packs of cigarettes that were collected from our readers for the little girl in Queens, New York. Thanks to you, this little girl has the free use of a lung machine until October.
