For years most of you knew how 'bananas' I was, I am, I is! Well this past all star week, I've proved to myself and all opposing fans how far gone I really am. Why they haven't taken me to Retreat or Bellevue yet, is because everyone else around me is just as bad.

The games are so full of excitement that one of these days me and a few other mothers will be hanging on the flagpole and not realize how we got there. Is this what Joe Di Maggio's mother went through?

Since our Louis is a member of the Back Mountain All Stars grandparents, uncles, nephews, and friends traveled from New York to cheer the team. We had: George, Adele and Anthony Amalfitano, Chickie Circolone; Carmela and Joe Valenti, Ed and Mike Galanta, Josie and Tony Amdola. With God's help we should make Williamsport - Look out world!

Happy birthday to Scott Kerkowski who will blow out six candles on July 27 and to his mom Gerri whose birthday cake will hold a few more candles, July 29.

The Johnson's, Noel, Kay, Mark and Matthew, former neighbors enjoyed the weekend at the Osbornes where they visited with many friends.

Saturday evening, Oak Hill Civic Association conducted its annual T-shirt dance at the Idetown Firehall. If the sayings on the T-shirts were any indication, the dance was hilarious.

Congratulations to Ben and Nancy Sevinsky upon the birth of their son Ben, Jr. who weighed in at (hold onto your hats) 10 lbs. - 4 oz. Little sister Karen, Kim and Annie are delighted with their new bundle.

Many happy reruns to Pete Tomaselli who will celebrate his 15 birthday July 28 and to Allison Lukasavage her 4 birthday July 30.

A new breed of lilies are being grown in Oak Hill...Lithuanian. To the delight of John and Ann Chesnovitch, 41 blooms were counted. When I asked John how this came about, he joked that he feeds them home cooked Lithuanian food.

Friday, Erin Cleary celebrated her sixth birthday with a dinner party for several friends. Eating the goodies were Mark and Matthew Johnson, Len and Kathy Burke, George and Adele Correale, Elizabeth and Lee Williams, Missy Yoniski, Karen Iwanowski, Maribeth and Kathy Hocker, Dane and Brett Weyman, Linda Babetski, David Higgins.

A surprise anniversary party was held in honor of Vince and Marge Angelicola. Sunday afternoon 50 guests gathered on the Askews lawn to celebrate the couple's 25 wedding anniversary.

Sincere sympathy to the Seagrave-Daly family upon the death of Mr. Seagrave-Daly's dad. Very special greetings to Father Jordan, pastor at Gate of Heaven, who will honor a birthday July 29.

Lehman-Jackson Giants Little League baseball team enjoyed a picnic Saturday afternoon at the Blejwas home. Following a lunch that was prepared by the parents, the team bombarded the Correale pool where they showed their appreciation to Walter Blejwas and Harry Haeefe. The teammates presented their manager and coach with pocket watches.

Big Brothers needed

The unique aspect of the Big Brother program is that it offers a fatherless boy the opportunity to have a friendship with one special man - his Big Brother. A Big Brother is many things to his little Brother: he's someone to look up to, learn from, do things with, and talk to.

The continued success of Big Brothers depends upon the voluntary support it receives from men in Wyoming Valley who are willing to spend a few hours of their time doing the things they like to do, with one special boy. The Big Brother service area includes the greater Dallas-Nanticoke areas.

Anyone who might be interested in becoming a Big Brother is asked to contact "The Bridge". A Youth Services Center, 19 North River St., Wilkes-Barre (824-5766). The Big Brother program is administered by Catholic Social Services of Luzerne County.
