

20th Centermoreland auction to offer bar-b-que

The 20th annual auction and chicken barbecue of the Centermoreland United Methodist Church will be held Friday and Saturday evenings, August 8-9, on the church grounds in Centermoreland. Serving will begin at 4 to 7 each day and the auction will get underway at 7 each evening.

There are many new and used articles to be auctioned off, most of them donated by stores and business firms in the area. Anyone wishing to donate used or new articles is requested to call either Richard Brunges, Harry Hislop or Jack Roberts, who are serving as co-chairmen of this year's benefit affair.

This is the original old church barbecue in the area. Twenty years of hard working has gone to the planning and preparation to make it the joyous and successful affair it is. The people of the church have a beautiful church to worship in, and it was all made possible by the annual benefit auction and barbecue.

Tickets for the barbecue can be secured from any member of the church or from the ticket chairman, Mrs. Dorothy Roberts. Tickets this year again were donated by Richard Disque and Sons Funeral Home, Dallas.

Chairmanship of the chicken barbecue this year is shared by Mrs. Alta Kubick and Mrs. Florence Weaver. They plan the menu, order the food and contact members of the church, who will help in serving the dinner that is barbecued by men of the church.

One of the main attractions of the benefit is the small goods stand where baked goods, jewelry, dishes, clothing, knick-knacks, books and many other bargain items are offered for sale. Mrs. Ruth Schoonover is in charge of the baked goods this year and Mrs. Mildred Schrey is in charge of the sale booth.

Everyone attending the auction and barbecue usually stops by the refreshment stand for coffee and something good to eat. This year Mr. and Mrs. David Weaver are in charge of the refreshment stand.

Committee chairmen for this year's benefit affair include cashier, Harry Hislop; treasurer, Ola Mae Schoonover; auctioneers,

Richard Brunges; auction helpers, Roger Bellas; parking, Walter McKeel; maintenance, George Schoonover; tables, Ethel

Cooper; grounds, Ralph Weaver; barbecue pits, Ted Dymond and Bob Phillips; publicity, Mrs. Dorothy Roberts.

Sister M. Julian heads committee

By unanimous vote Sister M. Julian Baird was chosen to be chairperson of the steering committee for the 7th Step Foundation Chapter at the monthly meeting of the group at Mercy Center, Dallas, July 15. She will replace Barbara Hansen, 13 Dorchester Drive, Dallas, who has resigned for personal reasons.

Other officers of the committee are Paul Bauer, RD 3, Wyoming, vice-chairperson; Doris R. Mallin, 45 Pinecrest Ave., Dallas; Leo E. Nauroth, 67 River St., Forty-Fort, financial consultant.

The group is working towards establishing a chapter of the 7th Step Foundation in the area to service the State Correctional Institution at Dallas. Cooperation with Glen Jeffies, superintendent at SCID, and B.J. Leverette, deputy superintendent, has been constant and supportive. When sufficient backing and funds is obtained, a pre-affiliate status will be sought from the national headquarters of 7th Step Foundation in Cincinnati, Ohio.

The next meeting is set for Aug. 26. For information call Sister Julian at 675-2131.

Dallas Baptist to offer 'unique'

The Dallas Baptist Church, 42 Mill Street, (beside the Agway Store) has extended a general invitation to everyone of this area to attend a unique event. The members and Pastors of the Valley View Mennonite Church, of Schoeneck ("Beautiful Corner"), Pa. will conduct a worship service, beginning at 7, Sunday evening, July 28.

These folk are one of the "plain people" groups of the Lancaster County, Pennsylvania Dutch country. While not of the "horse and buggy" Dutch, their dress and manner of life is distinctive.

The worship of these Mennonite folk is characterized by four part harmony, acapella singing; the separating of men and women into two sections, the plain dress of their tradition, and the complete commitment to the Gospel as the message of God.

The group, consisting of 60 to 70 men and women, is coming to the area to sing in the home of the disabled mother of one of their members. The Dallas Baptists invited them to conduct the worship service Sunday evening while they are here.

While all are invited to share this spiritual and unique event, it is to be clearly noted that this is not a performance, not a demonstration, nor is it designed to attract the merely curious. It is to be an experience of worship, in a manner in which few of our area have ever witnessed, but genuine worship in the presence of God.

of the Shavertown United Methodist Church.

Surviving are her husband, Paul; son, William C., Shavertown; sisters, Mrs. Clara Eckert, Mrs. Henry Van Horn and Mrs. William Carroll all of Dallas.

Funeral was held Monday from Disque Funeral Home, 672 Memorial Highway, Dallas, with interment in Idetown Cemetery.

Eastern Star services were conducted Tuesday evening.
