

CONGRESS VOTES

Daniel J. Flood votes

Daniel J. Flood, 11th Congressional District, Pennsylvania

H. Res. 584 provides an open rule with one hour of general debate on H.R. 5546. Yeas 351. Nays 0. Agreed to, July 11.

Mr. Flood voted yea.

H.R. 5546 authorizes $1.8 billion for health manpower programs through fiscal year 1978. On an amendment requiring medical students to pay back the amount the school received in Federal support for each student or agree to practice in areas where there is a shortage of doctors: Yeas 209. Noes 153. Agreed to, July 11.

Mr. Flood voted aye.

On an amendment deleting the section providing for regulation of the number, geographic location, and specialty of first-year medical residency training programs: Yeas 207. Noes 146. Agreed to, July 11.

Mr. Flood voted no.

Whether to pass H.R. 5546 as amended. Yeas 296. Nays 58. Passed.

Mr. Flood voted yea.

H.R. 8561 makes appropriations totaling $13.1 billion for the Department of Agriculture and related agencies for the 15 months ending September 30, 1976. On an amendment providing an additional $250 million for loans to help small farmers meet Federally imposed water pollution control standards: Yeas 307. Noes 86. Agreed to, July 14.

Mr. Flood voted aye.

On an amendment deleting $3 million appropriated for Cotton Incorporated: Yeas 196. Noes 199. Rejected, July 14.

Mr. Flood voted no.

On a motion to recommit the bill to the Committee on Appropriations: Yeas 58. Nays 333. Rejected, July 14.

Mr. Flood voted nay.

Whether to pass H.R. 8561 as amended. Yeas 353. Nays 38. Passed.

Mr. Flood voted yea.

H. Res. 599 provides an open rule with four hours of general debate on H.R. 7014, the ENERGY CONSERVATION AND OIL POLICY ACT of 1975. Yeas 261. Nays 78. Agreed to, July 15.

Mr. Flood answered present.

H. Res. 591 establishes a new Select Committee on Intelligence to conduct an inquiry into the intelligence community of the U.S. Government. On an amendment in the nature of a substitute abolishing the present

Select Committee on Intelligence: Yeas 122. Noes 293. Rejected, July 16.

Mr. Flood voted no.

On an amendment in the nature of a substitute abolishing the present select Committee on Intelligence and providing, following House action to create a Joint Committee on Intelligence, for House members on the Joint Committee to act as an ad hoc House Committee until final enactment of legislation creating the Joint Committee: Yeas 178. Noes 230. Rejected.

Mr. Flood voted no.

On a motion that in effect suspends consideration of H. Res. 591: Yeas 242. Noes 162. Agreed to, July 16.

Mr. Flood voted aye.

The conference report on H.R. 5901 makes appropriations totaling $7.9 billion for aid to education for the 15 months ending September 30, 1976. The measure also includes $2.6 billion in advance appropriations for fiscal year 1977. Yeas 370. Nays 42. Agreed to, July 16.

Mr. Flood voted yea.

A Senate amendment reported in disagreement by the conferees deletes language in H.R. 5901 prohibiting any of the funds appropriated to be withheld to compel the integration by sex of physical education classes. On a motion that the House insist on its disagreement to the Senate amendment: Yeas 212. Nays 211. Motion agreed to, July 16.

Mr. Flood voted yea.

H.R. 8597 makes appropriations totaling $7.5 billion for the Treasury Department, the U.S. Postal Service, the Executive Office of the President, and several Independent Agencies for the 15 months ending September 30, 1976. On an amendment deleting language prohibiting the use of funds by the Internal Revenue Service to require private schools and other

GUEST EDITORIAL

Forgiveness of nature

The preacher had an idea. Rice thrown on his church lawn at many weddings had done no good. Not one shoot in all those years grew to cover the bare spots.

So at a recent wedding he tried his idea. He gave guests waiting for the bride and groom generous handfuls of grass seed, suggesting they aim once for the happy couple and once for the organizations to prove they have adopted racially nondiscriminatory policies in order to qualify for tax-exempt status: Yeas 284. Noes 122. Agreed to.

Mr. Flood voted aye.

On an amendment reducing funds for the Council on Wage and Price Stability from $1.5 million to $500,000: Yeas 167. Noes 243. Rejected.

Mr. Flood voted no.

On an amendment prohibiting the use of any White House office funds to pay employees detailed from Government agencies for full-time service at the White House: Yeas 141. Noes 274. Rejected, July 17.

Mr. Flood voted no.

Whether to pass H.R. 8597 as amended. Yeas 393. Nays 18. Passed.

Mr. Flood voted yea.

The House returned to H. Res. 591, establishing a Select Committee on Intelligence, on Thursday. On an amendment reducing the size of the Committee from 13 to 7 members: Yeas 125. Noes 285. Rejected, July 17.

Mr. Flood voted no.

On an amendment allowing members of the present Select Committee to become members of the new Select Committee if they so chose: Yeas 119. Noes 274. Rejected, July 17.

Mr. Flood voted no.

H. Res. 591 establishing a new Select Committee on Intelligence was subsequently agreed to by voice vote.

The conference report on H.R. 4035 extends the EMERGENCY PETROLEUM ALLOCATION ACT for 4 months, through December 31, 1975, and requires the establishment of a ceiling price for currently uncontrolled crude oil. Yeas 293. Nays 172. Agreed to, July 17.

Mr. Flood voted yea.

MY TYPEWRITER TALKS

Metempsychosis

By The Rev. Charles H. Gilbert

In Virgil's book of the travels of his great hero Aeneas comes the story of how he could get together so many stories about events before he awoke from his dream, or came back after death. He managed to get his return trip across the Styx without drinking of the river Lethe. He was supposed to drink of that water which could make him forget all he had seen.

I don't remember how he bribed his way past that. But some of that entered into one of my bad dreams back in the days of my schooling. I dreamed I was waiting to be executed by hanging, already I was adjusting the noose about my own neck!

As I dreamed it I remembered I had dreamed this dream many times before, but I had forgotten other details.

At least I got the story in my diary, and most dreams never stay long enough to get recorded. But on this dream occasion I found Virgil's doctrine, differing from that of transmigration of the soul into varying forms of higher or lower life, is simply a teaching that the soul comes back to try again, it is the doctrine known as metempsychosis, and I can hear the very soul of my professor's voice pronouncing it; it is a word I have never forgotten.

It is agreeable to me that I have no memory of any of the murders I was supposed to have committed in order to bring on this series of hangings in order for eternal justice to be done! Well, I hereby declare my intention never to do any more murders! And hope for no hangings. My aim, by the grace of God, is to live this life to its highest and best possibility.

Something else recorded in this old diary which was no dream, but a memory of a very fine man whose memory I venerate. He was William H. Heidel, teacher of Greek in my first and only semester at Wesleyan University in Middletown, Conn.

I may have chosen his course because of his reputation as a philosopher. At any rate I admired his quiet dignity, no wrathful sawing of the air nor shouting his opinions.

The book we were studying was "Euthyphro," the account of a dialogue between Socrates and this youth whom he met in Athens. Socrates had a way of developing his philosophy and teaching it by what we now call the "Socratic method" of asking some seemingly simple question, and then involving the student in further cross-questioning as to the logic or righteousness of his intentions as he tried to justify himself.

For example, the story was that Euthyphro was in town on the errand of bringing his own father to law for some fault or other. Socrates began questioning the motives and reasons for the young man's action, for the youth was having to justify his action on some general grounds of behavior.

Socrates had the poor boy so wound up and entangled in his own reasons that he finally gave up in disgust and went off home, anything to get away from this Socrates. Woe be to anyone to whom Socrates would come wanting to know wisdom, for Socrates held a kind of simple doubt about anyone claiming to be wise in any matter. He always appeared as one who wanted to learn wisdom from anyone who claimed to have it.

I finally had to give up that semester of college and returned to the farm where the balance of my nerves was restored. But after some weeks or months I got to thinking of that man with the neatly trimmed beard and quiet calmness of voice, and I felt impelled to write him a letter of appreciation.

I had no idea my letter would bring so much pleasure to his brilliant but humble mind. What I do remember is the one word he used to describe the tribute I paid him: "I did not realize that I was at all worthy of your encomium!"

I did not know it was an "encomium," but I have never forgotten its meaning. And because I remember that word so well I have all the more cherished the memory of that man as a philosopher and scholar, and with it many of the teachings of Socrates.

ONLY YESTERDAY

Liquor store returns, forced landing at Stockert's, no dump

10 Years Ago, July 26, 1935

A leg injury has ended the baseball career spanning nearly a decade of Add Woolbert, Jr.

The first liquor store in Dallas, since the repeal of the 18th amendment, will be opened in Dallas soon. It will be one of four liquor stores in all of Luzerne County.

Salaries of teachers elected to serve in Dallas Borough schools for the next term were approved at a meeting of the directors last Friday night. Principal Ronald Doll will receive $1,380. Teacher salaries range from $900 to $1,220.

Richard Templin, Richard Disque, Paul LaBar and Kenneth Westover entered the Panama Canal Zone with the U.S. Army last Sunday.

Glen Bulford of Trucksville has petitions out for election as constable of Kingston Township.

Daniel C. Roberts, Harveys Lake, whose generosity has given Harveys Lake one of the finest fire companies in this section, has been named a trustee of Bucknell University.

Deaths -- Ronald Weaver, Trucksville.

You could get -- Tomato soup or puree, five cents a can; applesauce, three no. two cans, 25 cents; hams, 27 cents a pound; peaches, six pounds, 29 cents and potatoes, 21 cents a peck.

30 Years Ago, July 20, 1945

Janet Garinger and Prof. John Rowlands will be guest soloists for the Dr. Henry M. Laing Fire Company Band's summer concert July 29.

The Shavertown Fire Company in an effort to raise $2,300 for hose will hold their 15th annual community days on Aug. 3 and 4.

A young girl flier made a forced landing in heavy fog in the hayfield owned by Mr. and Mrs. William Stockert this week.

Martha Hadsal, Dallas, has added a fifth book in the memory of a classmate at Lehman High School who gave his life in the service, to the Back Mountain Memorial Library's collection. The book, "Arabian Nights", is in the memory of Lt. Henry Culp, Huntsville.

The old barn near the Lehigh Valley Depot, which served for many years as a blacksmith shop, is being dismantled. Clyde Veitch intends reconstructing part of the building for a garage for the milling firm.

The frame garage owned by Frederick Eck on the Harveys Lake Highway at Shavertown Corners is being moved to Tobys Creek and will be used as a plumbers shop.

Married -- Anne Phillips and T-Sgt. Robert Ray.

Deaths -- Lt. Henry Culp, Huntsville (in action); Francis Edward Drake, Dallas.

Playing at local theatres -- "National Velvet", with Elizabeth Taylor, Mickey Rooney, Donald Crisp and Jackie Jenkins.

You could get -- Peanut butter, 16 oz. jar, 23 cents; iced, 23 cents a 14 pound; peaches, $4.95 a bushel; watermelons, 4 cents a pound and cleanser, two cans, 15 cents.

20 Years Ago, July 22, 1965

Henry Peterson, treasurer of the library association reported a $15,673 gross at the ninth annual Back Mountain Memorial Library Auction. With the termination of Dallas Township's lease on the Glen Billings' property July 31, the Back Mountain will be left without a dump.

Teddy, a little mongrel owned by Gresham Hoyt, is recovering nicely at Dr. George Flack's Hospital, Trucksville after being bit by a rattlesnake near his home at Evans Falls, last week.

Miners National Bank has purchased the vacant lot adjacent to the Oddfellows Building and fronting on Memorial Highway from Lillian Kuehn.

Wilfred Ide has been named chairman of the annual beauty contest sponsored by the Harveys Lake Lions Club.

Major Hillman C. Dress, Harveys Lake, has received his master parachute badge.

Engaged -- Helen Lewicka to Charles Brin.

Married -- Betty Sophronia Phares and Luther Kocher.

Playing at local theatres -- "The High and the Mighty", with John Wayne and Claire Trevor.

You could get -- Better women's dresses, $5; large size towels, 38 cents; inflatable pools, $4.95 smoked picnics, 20 cents a pound; honey dew melons, 49 cents each; braunschweiger, 29 cents a half pound and party cakes, 49 cents.

10 Years Ago, July 22, 1965

Dallas Post Editor, Mrs. T.M.B. Hicks, received honorable mention for her editorial, "You Cannot Start Too Young", on the cheating offenses at the U.S. Air Force Academy at this year's Golden Quill Awards.

The 19th Annual Back Mountain Memorial Library Auction chairman, Merrill Faegenburg, stated yester-

EDITORIAL

Parable: Apollo, Soyuz

The spaceships are joined in the vastness over the land mass Europe. The American extends a hand, joins it with Asian and in a tongue "foreign" to him asks how he is. The Asian responds it is good to see him...These men have turned the whole world upside down. (Acts 17:6)

In America a skepticism exists. In a tongue all their own, men make the remark the joining of hands should be done on earth first, not in the vastness of space. They forget the symbolism of the book many men live by. They forget the apple and the snake, they forget the three crows of the cock, they forget the filling of the wine bottles, the parting of the sea...But His disciples then began to ask him what the parable meant. He said to them: To you is given to know the mystery of the Kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables that seeing they may not see and hearing they may not understand. Now the parable is thus: (Luke Chap. 8, Ver. 4-5).

A people threatened with nuclear Holocaust and fear from another people join with them in a nuclear venture. They grow in two years of intense training to know each others as comrades, friends. They are no longer the "enemies" of what history books term a "cold war".

Symbolizing their camaraderie, they exchange a greeting of peace, in the universal language of affection, body contact...All the brothers send greetings, greet one and other with a holy kiss. (II Cor. 13: 11-13)

On earth a television camera shows Americans the true affection the men share. The word "Tvardish" is heard, memories of the old "red" movies flash before the Americans, the evil doing communists intent on ruling the world enter their thoughts. One hundred and forty miles above them the Asians and Americans can view in entirety 1-25th of that world.

Neither the Asian nor American wishes himself ruler of the world, rather they wish to share its beauty as they conduct tours of their portion for one another. In separate cabins, men from the two continents join together to share fun, problems, talk, nourishment...Share the needs of the saints practicing hospitality...To no man render evil for evil, but provide good things not only in the sight of God but in the sight of all men. (Romans 12: 13 and 17).

Parting, they wish each other luck and seal the passage between them. The seal will not endure eternity.

They plan a reunion on earth to share the knowledge produced by the gathering of "reds" and "capitalists" who had discovered a new aspect of humanity, sharing love and knowledge with their "enemies"...Finally brothers goodbye. Change your ways, listen to what I have told you, live in agreement and peace and may the God of love and peace be with you. Greet one another with the Holy kiss.

Donald Robert Stroud.

Married -- Louise Sutton and Richard L. Arnold and Ruth Ellen Beagle to Bradley C. Ide.

Deaths -- Leo Jacobs, Shavertown; Mary Hahn, mother of Mrs. Russell Banta.

You could get -- Bing cherries, 49 cents a pound; eggs, three dozen, $1; peanuts, 39 cents a pound; cottage cheese, 25 cents a pound; sweet corn, 49 cents a dozen; clams, four cents each; ducks 39 cents a pound and apple pie, 39 cents.

Engaged -- Kathy Lou Mingus to

All the faithful here send their greeting. (I Cor. 13:11-13).

In America they prayed for the safe return of both the Asians and the Americans. Let us hope they are joined by the Asians in seeing through the parable and know the mystery of the Kingdom of earth.

...Terry Bonifanti

THE DALLAS POST

Ray Carlsen, Editor & Publisher
Mrs. T.M.B. Hicks, Editor Emeritus
Ed Rees, Advertising
Charlot Denmon, News & Advertising
Terry Bonifanti, Asst. to Publisher
Virginia Hoover, Circulation
Blaze Carlsen, Asst. to Publisher
Ralph Frost, Graphic Artist
Bernie Yench, Office
Susan Heller, Office
Debbie DiPlacido, Office
Olga Kostrobala, Office

An independent newspaper published each Thursday by Pennaprint, Inc., from 41 Lehman Ave., Dallas, Pa. 18612. Entered as second class matter at the post office at Dallas, Pa., under the Act of March 3, 1879. Subscriptions, $9 per year Telephone 675-5211 or 825-8868. POSTMASTER: If undeliverable please send Form 3579 to P.O. Box 366, Dallas, Pa. 18611.

...Dottie Beckham

(Continued from Page one)

Horse show

Some of which are: western, English, youth, jumping, pony with carts, walking horses and timed events.

Proceeds from the show will be used to defray the operating expenses of the fire company building and equipment. The company is presently enlarging the building, to provide a larger area for more fire fighting and rescue equipment and enlarging the hall itself.

Dave Ide will be chairman of refreshments, assisted by firemen, auxiliary members and friends of the company.

Subscribe to the Post

Subscribe to the Post

Subscribe to the Post

Subscribe to the Post

Subscribe to the Post