

Sem has new art director

Wyoming Seminary president Dr. Wallace F. Stettler has announced that the Kingston prep school will take on a new art instructor with the start of the 1975-76 school year. She is Ann Tomlinson Finnell, of Princeton, N.J.

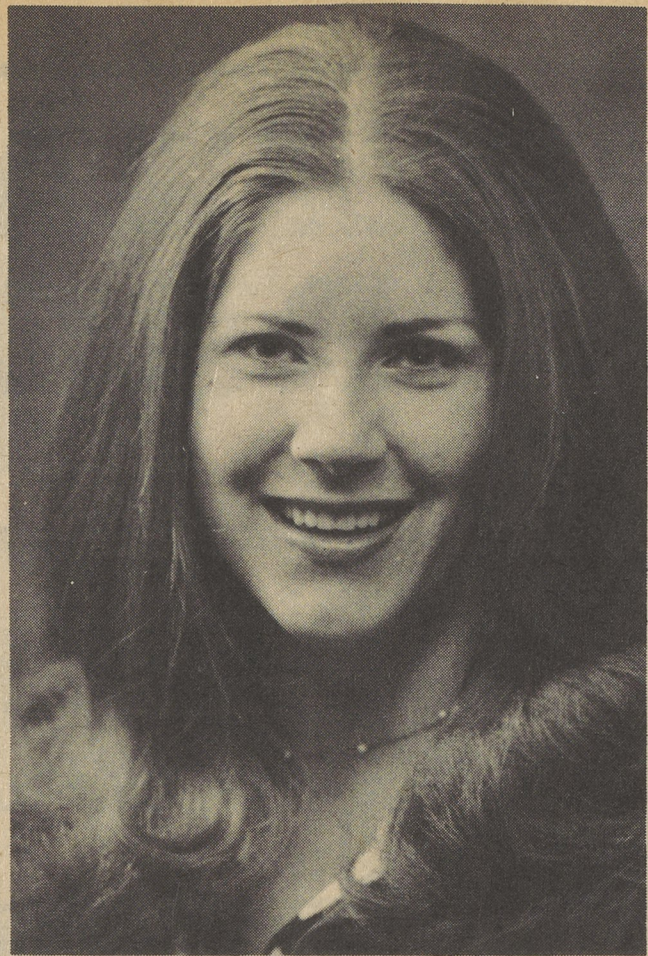

Miss Finnell is a graduate of Princeton High School and of Syracuse University's College of Visual and Performing Arts. A holder of a BFA degree in art education, she also attended Brooklyn's Pratt Institute.

Miss Finnell's student teaching and educational experience includes work in photography, dramatic lighting and set building, in addition to the basic arts.

She attended the Maine Photographic Workshop during the summer of 1974.

A dean's list student during her entire stay at Syracuse, Miss Finnell created a sequence for a children's television show originating from Syracuse and served as chairman of a local children's art exhibit.

Harveys Lake woman weds Loyalville man

Our Lady of Victory Church, Harveys Lake, was the setting for the recent marriage of Miss Claire Schall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Schall of Loyalville, to Gordon W. Simington, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Simington of Bronchburg, New Jersey.

The Rev. Patrick D. Healey performed the double-ring ceremony and celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was attired in an original gown of white nylon dotted swiss, featuring an A-line skirt, high neck and full sleeves trimmed with petaled Belgium lace enhanced with small seed pearls. She wore an elbow-length veil of English illusion attached to a toque headpiece of beaded lace and carried a nosegay of white and talisman roses, baby's breath, and stephanitis.

Mrs. Ronald Schall, sister-in-law of the bride was matron of honor. Bridesmaid was Miss Wendy Simington, sister of the groom. They wore matching floor-length Bianchi gowns of imported orange print voile and white picture hats. They carried nosegays of talisman roses, stephanitis, and baby's breath.

Bruce Conway, of South Plainfield, New Jersey, was best man. Richard Schall, brother of the bride was the usher.

A reception immediately following the ceremony was held at Castle Inn, Dallas, Pa.

The bride was feted at showers given by the faculty of the Monville Public Schools, and by each of her attendants.

The rehearsal dinner was held at the Overbrook Inn, Dallas, Pa.

Mrs. Simington is a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School, College Misericordia, and the University of Scranton.

Mr. Simington is a graduate of Somerville High School, Somerville, New Jersey, and Kean College, Union, New Jersey.

The couple will reside in South Plainfield, New Jersey.

Kingston-Forty Fort Lions install officers

Herman Niewinski, 14 Hughes Street, Forty Fort, was installed as the 41st president of the Kingston-Forty Fort Lions Club last week.

Installing officer was John Dente, holder of one of the most conspicuous achievements in Pennsylvania Lionism - 32 years of perfect weekly attendance.

The newly installed proxy, active in community and business, previously held numerous offices in the Lion's Club. The event was held at the Castle Inn.

Former club member and prominent clergyman in Wyoming Valley, the Rev. Edgar Singer was the principal speaker. Toastmaster was William Gunster. The evening included refreshments, entertainment, awards and dancing.

The new president lauded the achievements of his predecessor Dr. David Duncan of New Goss Manor, Dallas.
