Rod, Gun Club admits 28 members

The Harveys Lake Rod and Gun Club, Inc. this week announced the approval of 28 probationary members for full membership. Armando Belardinelli, Clyde Davis, Robert Dennison, Robert Federowicz, Thomas Meighan, William Motes, Robert Oeller, Peter Onukiewicz, Jack Roberts, James Roberts, Allen Scott, John Herrmann, David Kasper, David Kolesky, Bob McManus, Stephen Novakovich, Ronald Truskozowski, Patrick Chairge, Jerry Chariton, Thomas Ciampi, William Judge, Walter Karl Jr., Walter Karl Sr., Jay Landau, Rinaldo Lucarelli Jr., Joseph Malocheski, Raymond Pietrzykoski, and Henry Winters were approved as members. The club temporarily closed membership following the induction. Shooting hours for the clubgrounds have been changed at 10 a.m. and close at sunset. All members are asked to follow the new rules.

The annual outing will be held Sept. 7. This year the affair will be catered and any member who has not received information regarding same should contact Tanya Kocher, corresponding secretary, or Joe Zier, president. Admittance will be by reservation only and the deadline for reservations (including money) is Aug. 25. The event is the regular meeting night and members may make their reservation at that time. Joe Zier is chairman of the affair.

The club plans to have a booth at Wyoming Valley Mall for National Hunting and Fishing Day. Anyone interested in helping will be welcome. Bob Mathers, chairman in charge of remodeling the clubhouse, asked for a work day on Sept. 13. It is hoped to have more help in order to finish the restrooms and ceiling. Also on this same day the electricians will finish the fans. Bill Bevan was elected new director at the last director's meeting, filling vacancy left by deceased member Dean Shaver. The next regular meeting will be Aug. 25, at 8 p.m. at the clubhouse.

Noxen wins softball league

Carl Siglin's Noxen nine captured straight season honors in the Franklin Township Volunteer Firemen's Softball League for Boys and was scheduled to play third place Centermoreland in the semi-final of the season title. Centermoreland is managed by Neil Thomas. In the other semi-final game Tuesday, Joe Kubiski's Orangemen were scheduled to take on Demunds, managed by Bert Brace. Winners of the semi-final games will meet in a single game for season's honors.

In concluding straight season games over the week-end, Centermoreland trounced Demunds, 23 to 3, with Ayers hurling for the winners. On Sunday, Centermoreland trounced Orange, 18 to 16, and Noxen was victorious over Demunds, 13 to 6. The final standings:
