Oak Hill

by Bridgette Correale

After last week's column when I mentioned I was learning to drive a standard shift car, everyone said, "Once you learn you'll love it, you'll enjoy it and so on".

Well let me tell you - if I keep up my rodeo act, Vin will not give me the car to love and enjoy, and at this point...I don't care.

There's so much to remember at one time. "Easy on the gas," "release the clutch slowly," "shift." To tell you the truth I think Vin is happiest when I'm driving. I haven't time to talk.

Belated birthday greetings to Peg Canfield whose big day was Sept. 7 and to Mary Gesmundo, Sept. 1. Sorry to learn that Oak Hill's honorary neighbor, Vera Vaneski is a medical patient in one of New York's hospital.

Belated anniversary greetings to one of my favorite couples Jack and Elly Thompson. The couple honored their 20 anniversary Sept. 1.

Sept. 17 is a popular birthday for several friends. Happy birthday to Michael Hawk, Ed Belasco and Charlie Batka.

Little Shannon Cleary will celebrate her fifth birthday Saturday Sept. 20 with a party at McDonalds.

Visiting the Batkas' were Shirley and John Mitchell of New Jersey.

During Jerry Lewis' annual Labor Day Telethon, Lynda and Billy Jones canvassed our neighborhood for donations which were deposited at WNEP-TV studios. $30 was collected and Lynda and Billy wish to thank the residents for contributing.

The very best to Nancy Rollman who will soon relocate to Washington D.C.

Birthday greetings to Carolyn Maccerielli who celebrated her eighth birth day Sept. 11 with a party for friends. Enjoying the goodies were Shari Jones, Cathy Grady, Adele Correale, Cathy and Ernie Comer, Mary Ruth Farrell, and Teri Hrabowchak.

Hayden and Verna Evans have returned from a fabulous vacation in Hawaii.

It seemed like old home week at the hospitals this week. Mildred Espen was a medical patient at Wilkes-Barre General. Frances Dress is mending a broken leg in Nesbitt. Gerri Bartz is, keeping a wing at Wilkes-Barre General hopping and happy, while the sweetheart of all Gate of Heaven students, Sister Liguori, is at Mercy Hospital.

Birthday greetings to Wendy Reed who will honor her ninth year, Sept. 18, Susan Sternfeld, Sept. 19, and to Elly Gerchak, Sept. 15.

Friday evening, Gate of Heaven's seventh and eighth graders enjoyed the facilities at the Catholic Youth Center in Wilkes-Barre. Under the supervision of Sister Leonita, Principal, Sister Doris and Sister Lucien, the students frolicked in the pool and played in the game room.

Happy to write that my Dad is recuperating very nicely and in a day or two, he will be home from the hospital. Words can never express my love and appreciation to all of you who helped by sending get well cards, gifts and most of all - your prayers.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Robbins, Carverton Heights, have returned after a week at Virginia Beach, Va., where they were guests at the Colonial Inn Motel on the oceanfront. While there, they witnessed the three and one-half hour parade of the Mid-Atlantic Shriners, who were in convention there, and also toured the Oceania Naval Air Station.

The main topic for discussion among families of St. Frances Cabrini parish in Carverton and Blessed Sacrament parish in Centermoreland is the parish family picnic held recently at Fanti's Park. The affair brought out an extra large turnout of families from both parishes and the general consensus of opinion is that everyone had a grand time.

The Rev. Thomas Croghan, pastor, was especially pleased with the large turnout. Among those, who performed yeoman duty on the many details, were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Krispin, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Pliscott, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Guy Peters, Mrs. Doris Montross and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Buzapis among others.

Friends of Ted Wilson of Lower Demunds Road will be pleased to learn he is coming along nicely in Nesbitt Hospital where he has been a medical patient for several weeks.

The choir of Centermoreland United Methodist Church will rehearse tonight at 7:30 at the church with Mrs. Dorothy Roberts, director, in charge.

Draper Schoonover of Centermoreland was reported coming along nicely in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital where he is a medical patient.

Congratulations are in order for Mr. and Mrs. Russell Dymond of Centermoreland on the birth of a daughter, Theresa, in Wilkes-Barre's Mercy Hospital. Mrs. Dymond is the former Miss Mary Ann Latosek of Centermoreland. The couple also has three other children - Ann Marie, Leonard and Stephen.

Stanley Dorrance, Jr., Wichita, Kansas, is spending several weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dorrance, Sr., Demunds Road.

Friends of James Norton of Orange will be glad to learn he is recuperating nicely in General Hospital, Wilkes-Barre, where he has been a patient for several weeks.

Also reported on the mend after a several months' siege of illness is Alex Romanowski of Krispin Road, who is recuperating at home following several weeks in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital.

Terri Ann Phillips and her brother, Paul Phillips, were honored at a birthday party last week at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Phillips of Orange. Terri observed her second birthday anniversary while Paul marked his 16th milestone.

Elizabeth Scureman of Carverton is a medical patient in Mercy Hospital, Wilkes-Barre, where she was admitted last Tuesday.

Virginia Dorrance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Dorrance, Demunds Road, has left for New Brunswick, N.J., where she has begun studies for a master's degree at Rutgers University. She is a graduate of Dallas Area High School and received her bachelor of science degree from Kings College in June.

A banner crowd is expected to turn out this evening for the benefit softball game between the Back Mountain Police and the coaches of the Orange-Centermoreland Little League. The contest is scheduled to get underway at 6 on the Orange diamond, located to the rear of the Orange Volunteer Firemen's firehouse.

Refreshments at the game will be sold by members of the Little League auxiliary and proceeds will be used for conditioning the new Little League diamond in Centermoreland.

Mrs. Josephine Zajkowski and daughter Ann and Mrs. Celia Para of Manville, N.J., and Mrs. Hedwig Kochan of Swoyersville were week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dorrance, Sr., Orange.

The New Hope Singers, who are appearing at various Wyoming Valley Churches, are scheduled to present a program at the Carverton United Methodist Church on Friday night, Sept. 26, at 7:30 under auspices of the three Methodist Churches comprising the Carverton charge.

Pastor-parish relations committee of the Carverton charge will meet Sunday afternoon at 2 at Mt. Zion United Methodist Church with Henry Hess, chairman, presiding.

Inquirers Group will meet Sunday evening from 8 to 9:30 at the Methodist parsonage, Orange and Bodle Roads. Persons desiring to learn more about the United Methodist Church or those, who may desire to affiliate with the Methodist Church, are invited to attend. Beginning Thursday evening, Oct. 2, from 8 to 9:30 a new study group for those persons, who are members of the Methodist Church, will get underway with the Rev. Paul Bauer, pastor, in charge.

Incidentally, the new office for the Carverton charge Methodist Churches has been opened and is functioning under the direction of Mrs. Marion White and Rev. Bauer. The new office will be open Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 8:30 to 12:30. The telephone number at the new office is 696-3715 and members of the Orange, Mt. Zion and Carverton Methodist Churches are requested to make note of the number for church matters. It is located in the Carverton Methodist Church building.

A planning retreat by the council of ministries of the Carverton Methodist charge will get underway tomorrow evening at 6:30 and continue all day Saturday at the Mercy Center of College Misericordia, Dallas.

The Northmoreland Volunteer Fire Company Auxiliary resumed its

Wednesday quilting sessions in Gardner's storeroom in Orange. Mrs. Althea Dymond, president, extended an invitation to all members of the auxiliary to attend the quilting sessions, which are held Wednesdays from 10 until ???

Confirmation classes from St. Frances Cabrini Church, Carverton, and Blessed Sacrament Church, Centermoreland, will meet Saturday morning at 10 in Blessed Sacrament Church, Centermoreland.

The Franklin Township of Luzerne County Zoning Hearing Board will conduct a public hearing in the basement of the Orange United Methodist Church, Orange, Penna., at 8:00 P.M. on Tuesday, October 14, 1975, for the purpose of hearing the following requests:

Linda LaBar, R.D. 3, Dallas, Pa. request permission to operate a beauty shop in the home of Clarence LaBar on County Road No. 10, Sutton Creek Rd. in Franklin Township.

Vincent W. Krulevick, Box 214, R. D. 3, Dallas, Penna. request permission to place a mobile home on their property located on Township route 184 in Orange.
