RHODA GREENLEY

A Trucksville woman was pronounced dead on arrival at Bloomsburg Hospital Oct. 5 after apparently suffering a heart attack while operating her car in Sugarloaf Township, Columbia County.

The victim was identified as Mrs. Rhoda H. Greenley, 69, of 28 Harris Hill Road.

Mrs. Greenley's automobile, traveling north on Route 47, ran off the east berm, struck some guardrails and collided with a bridge abutment, it was reported by State Police at Bloomsburg.

Dr. Perry C. Cleaver, deputy Columbia County coroner, said it appeared that Mrs. Greenley suffered a heart attack seconds before the vehicle left the roadway since the accident itself did not inflict any serious injuries, only a few scratches and cuts. He said the woman had been under a doctor's care.

Police said Mrs. Greenley was negotiating a gradual right curve in the roadway when the mishap occurred.

Old Farmer's Riddle: Why are fish so smart? (Answer below.) Ask the Old Farmer: Some 60-odd years ago, a national magazine carried a story of a man named Knowles who set out to prove that he could fend for himself with nothing but his bare hands. He was taken deep into the woods in northern Maine, where he lived on edible berries, caught fish with his bare hands, covered his body with animal skins, etc. Was there any truth to this story? N.S. Schenck, N.Y.

If remember, and Knowles claimed he did it, but there was a rumor that someone slipped into the woods and brought him grub and blankets.
