

Rinken-Sharp vows

Miss Debra A. Rinken, daughter of Mrs. Vivian Rinken and the late Alexander Rinken of Idetown, and David N. Sharp, son of Mr. and Mrs. G.A. Sharp of R.D. 5, Sutton Road, Shavertown, were married recently in the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church, Dallas. The Rev. John Prator performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. David Sharp

The bride, given in marriage by her mother, wore a formal Bianchi gown of white Quiana jersey featuring a chapel length wateau train. Her silk illusion veil which was enhanced with a laced edge and Venice lace motifs fell from a draped Quiana profile cloche. She carried a bouquet of white roses, stephanotis and baby breath.

Mrs. Janice Congdon, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She was attired in a formal length Bianchi gown of mint green niesta knit featuring capped sleeves and a jewel-draped neckline. She wore a headpiece of mint green baby breath designed in a halo effect and carried a matching single rose entwined with baby breath and ribbon.

Miss Doreen Davis, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She was dressed identically to the matron of honor in peach sherbert. Her gown was complimented by a matching headpiece and single rose.

Thomas Healey was best man and Peter Sharp, brother of the groom, was an usher. Melvin Congdon, Jr., nephew of the bride was ring bearer.

A rehearsal dinner, held at Newberry Estates, was given by the bridegroom's parents.

Following the ceremony a cocktail hour and reception were held at the Hotel Sterling after which the couple left on a wedding trip to the New England states.

The bride is a graduate of Lake Lehman High School and Wilkes College where she received a bachelor of arts degree in Spanish and elementary education. She is presently employed as a kindergarten teacher by Lake Lehman school district.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Penn. State University where he received a letters, arts, and sciences degree. He is presently employed by Lazarus Department store as a buyer.

The couple is now residing in Huntsville.

Donna Sutliff

D. Sutliff commended student

Donna K. Sutliff, a senior at Lake-Lehman High School, has been informed by the National Merit Scholarship Program that she has earned the honor of commended student in the Annual National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

James L. Nicholas, Principal, in announcing the award indicated that less than two percent of the students who graduate from high school receive this very significant honor.

Miss Sutliff is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson D. Sutliff of RD 1, Shickshinny and has been an active member of the Lake-Lehman student body.

She was also honored by her selection to attend the Pennsylvania Junior Science and Humanities

Symposium which will be held Nov. 2 through 4, at the Pennsylvania State University.

The Symposium is designed to promote research and development at the high school level in the sciences and math.

Miss Sutliff plans to further her education in the area of science upon graduation from Lake-Lehman High School.

Hoagies will be available for pick-up on the day of the sale between 11 a.m. and noon at the church basement.

The proceeds of the sale will benefit the Choir Robe Fund.
