Hadassah sets art show

The Wilkes-Barre chapter of Hadassah will hold its 14th annual art exhibition and sale this Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 18 and 19 at the Jewish Community Center. The exhibition and sale will open with a gala patron preview cocktail party Oct. 18 beginning at 8 p.m. Mrs. Trudy Harris and Mrs. Muriel Klein are chairmen of the evening affair.

The public is invited to attend the Sunday event which will feature paintings, graphics, and African sculpture. Among the noted artists whose paintings will be for sale are those of Baskin, Calder, Dali, Dufy, Levier, Matisse, Neiman, Picasso, Renoir, Rubin, Soyer, and Vasareli.

These may be purchased at the premier as well as on Sunday. The collection will be on display from noon until 7 p.m.

All proceeds from this art exhibition and sale will benefit the Hadassah Medical Center in Jerusalem. These rebuilt and expanded hospital facilities on Mt. Scopus are due to reopen this month.

Mrs. Charlotte Paul and Mrs. Margery Ufberg are chairmen of the Art Show. The president of Wilkes-Barre Chapter of Hadassah is Mrs. Sylvia Klein.

The home of Ray Hall, West Center Hill Road, Dallas, was saved from total destruction by fire last week through the efforts of Peter Hughes, morning news carrier, and a next door neighbor, Mrs. James McGuire.

Mrs. Robert Hughes, Highland Avenue, discovered the fire on his way home after delivering papers. He ran to his home and his mother called Mrs. McGuire. Mrs. McGuire called the Dallas Fire Company at 7:15 a.m., who responded immediately with two pumpers and the ambulance.

On his arrival, 1st assistant Jim Davies was notified that someone was inside the house but five minutes after the firemen were on the scene they were notified he was at work.

The fire company used the new Highland Boulevard fire hydrant which provided sufficient water supply to put the fire under control.

The fire damage was held to the basement and the livingroom floor. The remainder of the house sustained heat and smoke damage including the newly remodeled kitchen.

Firemen believe the fire started in an old coal bin in the corner of the basement which was used for storage. Cause of the blaze is unknown.

Davies stated that Hall had purchased the home from the MacVeigh estate and had just completed extensive remodeling.
