Oak Hill

by Bridgette Correale
An important message for Catholic Youth Center members using the Gate of Heaven bus. The Saturday bus schedule is as follows: 8:20 - Sunset; 8:25 - Oak Hill; 8:30 - Route 415, Bowling Alley; 8:35 Gate of Heaven; 8:45 - Midway Manor. Returning from Center: 3:45 Midway Manor; 4 - Sunset; 4:05 Oak Hill; 4:10 Gate of Heaven.

On the days of registration: Nov. 15; Jan. 3; Feb. 14; March 27, the schedule changes to 9:05 - Sunset; 9:10 Oak Hill; 9:15 - Route 415 Bowling Alley; 9:20 Gate of Heaven; 9:30 Midway Manor. Returning at: 3:30 - Midway Manor; 3:35 Sunset; 3:40 Oak Hill; 3:45 Gate of Heaven. Any questions please contact Bridgette Correale 639-5759.

Birthday greetings to Jane Merrill who will honor a birthday Oct. 16. The very best to Leo and Geri Bartz who will soon celebrate their 21st wedding anniversary and to Hayden and Verna Evans their anniversary, Oct. 20.

Sporting a multi-photographed arm cast is Dougie Osborne. Happy birthday to Mike Kerkowski. His big day is Oct. 16. Enjoying the Columbus Day weekend with their son Vince Correale and family were Carmela and Joseph Valenti of East Hampton and Saratoga Springs, New York.

Congratulations to Irene and Mike Passarella. The couple will celebrate their 27th wedding anniversary Oct. 16.

I know someone who will be celebrating his birthday while attending a meeting at Mt. Airy Lodge, Poconos. Walter, my thin friend, I wouldn't mention it to a soul. Have a happy. Representing Rea and Derick at the Revlon convention recently held in the Poconos was Oak Hill's Geri Kerkowski.

Belated birthday greetings to Debby Kelly who celebrated her sixth birthday with a party for her first grade classmates at Gate of Heaven. Joe Namath of Waverly, N.Y.,

visited with their daughter Marianne Cleary and family.

Happy to see Mrs. Frances Dress back behind her desk at Gate of Heaven office. Mrs. Dress whose right leg is decorated in a cast, is recuperating nicely from a broken leg.

Returning from a fabulous vacation in sunny Hawaii were Cathy and Carol Lavenduski.

I've been called many things in my lifetime, but never did I have the honor of being called matron of the school bus. Saturday morning, I accompanied the boys and girls who will spend their Saturdays 'enjoying the facilities at the Catholic Youth Center.

As I was stepping off the bus, a Wilkes-Barre mother came over and asked "Are you the matron?" I replied, "No, just the bus driver."

Dallas News

by Charlot M. Denmon

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Sapsar, 186 W. Center Hill Road, Dallas, have returned home after vacationing in Hawaii.

Steve and Frank Pavlick, California, have been visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Pavlick, 10 Pinecrest Ave., Dallas. Frank has returned to California but Steve will visit friends in the area for several weeks.

Ann and Milt Whiting have an unusual visitor at their home. A beautiful collie, or perhaps collie and shepard, has adopted them. The dog arrived at their home about two months ago. It seems to have been well taken care of and well trained. Ann hopes the owner will read this and claim the dog, or if there is someone else who might know to whom it belongs they may call Ann or Milt at 298-2508. Ann would like to see the dog have a good home; she can't keep it and she hates to take it to the SPCA.

Ankner, Highland Drive, New Goss Manor, have returned from a motor trip through the New England States. They also visited Montreal.

Mrs. John Henninger, Pioneer Avenue, is convalescing at her home. Mildred Bertram, Huntsville-Chase Road, has returned from Wilkes-Barre General Hospital where she was a surgical patient.

Mrs. George Schimmel, Eric and Heather, State College, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Elston, Overbrook Avenue.

Bob Fino has reminded residents to get their tickets now for the Dallas Lions annual spaghetti supper, Oct. 22, 5 to 8 p.m. at the Dallas American Legion. Tickets are adults, $2.25; children, $1.

Members of the Back Mountain Wrestling Club will use the Dallas Junior High School wrestling room, Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7 to 9 p.m. The group is open to members six years old and up.

Ed Mark to address Boy Scouts

On Oct. 21, 1975, the Boy Scouts of Troop 155, Trucksville, will hear Ed Mark, Sr., Ceasestown, Jackson Twp., discuss and review the requirements for the Citizenship merit badges. The citizenship merit badges are prerequisites for the eagle scout award. The scouts learn about hobbies, future jobs, and advanced scoutcraft as they earn merit badges.

Scary fair coming

Remember those great sandboxes at the fine arts fiesta? The children's museum will be presenting another of its fine events - the haunted house and scary fair. It will be held at St. Stephen's Church, 3550 Franklin Street in Wilkes-Barre and will be open Oct. 23-24, 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Events will include a haunted house tour every ten minutes and a mask-making booth.

There will be cider and donuts, caramel apples and a bake sale. Besides the treats, there will be hand silkscreened t-shirts for sale.

All proceeds go to further exhibits of the Children's Museum of Northeastern Pennsylvania.
