Ward, Nicholson nuptials celebrated

The marriage of Carol Louise Ward and David Faust Nicholson was solemnized Saturday, Oct. 4, in St. Martin's Church, Port Leyden, N.Y. The Rev. Father Jarecki and the Rev. John Hunter officiated.

Mrs. Nicholson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Francis Ward, Port Leyden. Mr. Nicholson is the son of Mrs. George Mannear Nicholson, Newberry Estate, Dallas, and the late George Mannear Nicholson.

Escorted by her father, the bride chose a bridal gown of ivory silk faced peau de soie designed with a high lace neckline, highrise waistline and long, tapered sleeves. The entire gown and cathedral train featured appliques of reembodyered Alencon lace. She wore a full-length veil of ivory illusion attached to baby roses and stephanotis and carried a bouquet of orchids, white roses and stephanotis.

Beth Ward, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Gertrude Kraeger of Rochester, N.Y., and Mrs.

They selected long sleeved floor-length dresses of evergreen Qiana and carried yellow and orange miniature carnations and rosebuds highlighted with baby's breath.

George M. Nicholson, Jr., of Kingston served as best man for his brother. Ushers were J. Colin Kresock of Longmeadow, Mass.; Robert G. Edgerton Jr. of Forty Fort and Corey Zimmerman of Washington, D.C.

A reception was held at the Hulbert House, Boonville, N.Y. after which the couple left on a honeymoon to Florida.

They will reside at 263 S. Franklin St., Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. Nicholson is a graduate of South Lewis High School and Ithaca College. She is a physical therapist employed by Home-Health Services, Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. Nicholson, a graduate of Wyoming Seminary and Ithaca College, is affiliated with United Penn Bank, Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Voelker

Susan Bucan weds

Miss Susan Louise Bucan, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Michael Bucan, Shavertown, and Donald Jay Voelker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Voelker, Shavertown, were married recently in Shavertown United Methodist Church.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert DeWitt Yost and Pastor Lynn Rothrock.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white Sata Peau gown styled with a Point Venise lace. Her fingertip veil of English silk illusion fell from a lace and pearled Camelot cap. She carried a cascade of daisies, white baby carnations, ivy and baby breath interspersed with peach roses.

Miss Cynthia Bucan was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Paul Carpenter, West Chester; Miss Ruth Lewis, Dover, Del.; Miss Barbara Voelker, sister of the bridegroom; and Mrs.

Hyleme S. George, Louisville, Ky.

The maid of honor wore a coral Geana halter gown with bolero jacket, and matching picture hat. The bridesmaids gowns were identical to the maid of honor. They carried colonial bouquets of Fall-colored daisies and mums with peach roses and baby breath.

David Voelker, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Dan Wertzler, Youngstown, Ohio; Bob Voelker, Kingston, N.C., brother of the bridegroom; Paul Goodman, Nanticoke, and Bob Dzagan, Newport News, Va.

The reception was held in the West Ballroom of Hotel Gus Genetti's, Wilkes-Barre.

Following a wedding trip to Acapulco, the couple is residing in Oneonta, N.Y., for a short time before moving to Salt Lake City, Utah.

Mr. & Mrs. Walter Davis

Dallas residents observe 60th

Oct. 20 will mark the 60th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Davis, 54 Davenport St., Dallas.

The couple will travel to Philadelphia, Oct. 18, with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Davis, where they will meet their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tinsley.

The Davis' will be honored at a family dinner at Greene's Restaurant.

Before he retired, Davis was an employee of Royer Foundry, Kingston. Due to ill health he is restricted in his activities. He keeps well informed on civic matters and enjoys watching sports on TV or listening to the radio.

Mrs. Davis spends most of her time taking care of her husband, and his sister, Mrs. George Seelandt, who resides on Huntsville Road. Mrs. Seelandt will be 86 in December. She is recovering from two broken hips but is able to maintain her own apartment. Mrs. Davis enjoys her home and spends any leisure time in her yard.

The couple has two children, and four grandchildren, Judy and Bob Tinsley and Ric and James Davis. They also have five great grandchildren, Jimmy, Debbie, Scott, Ricky and Kristin.
