Balshaw conducts Oratorio Dec. 7

Clifford Balshaw will conduct the Wyoming Valley Oratorio Society chorus, soloists and orchestra in music by two twentieth century composers at 3:30 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 7, in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, South Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre.

Kodaly's "Missa Brevis", written during the closing days of World War II, will open the program. Soloists will include a soprano trio, Joanne Herron, Louise Cherry and Dorothy Balshaw; contralto Helen Ralston, tenor the Rev. Jack Keeler, and baritone David Scott.

Vaughan Williams' Christmas cantata "Hodie" was first performed in 1954 and will be the major work on the program, with Mrs. Herron, Scott and tenor John Vaida as soloists. The title is taken from the ancient carol "This day Christ was born", the first of several Christmas poems united by a connecting link of scriptural narrative to be sung by Louise Cherry, Dawn Diemer, Barbara Jones, Donna Miles and Nancy Tennerlied.

Balshaw, a resident of New Goss Manor, Dallas is organist and choir director at St. Stephen's Church and is on the faculty of College Misericordia.

Contributor cards may be obtained in advance from members of the chorus and board of directors or from the church office. None will be sold at the door. All seats will be reserved for card holders until 3:15, after which anyone without a card will be admitted to available seating.

McAvoy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon MacAvoy, 63 Main St., Shavertown. Miss Morgan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur D. Morgan, 198 Maple St., Trucksville. Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Davis III, High Point Acres, Dallas. And Johnson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin L. Johnson, 90 Midland Drive, Dallas.

GS cookie orders due Nov. 30

Nov. 30 is the last day in the "order-taking phase" of the Annual Cookie Sale sponsored by Penn's Woods Girl Scout Council.

Council Chairman, Mrs. Charles F. Hensley, Wilkes-Barre, commented that Girl Scouts throughout six-county area of Penn's Woods have been busy salesgirls since the Nov. 15. Taking orders for cookies to be delivered about mid-January. She stated that shortly after the order-taking phase, the total order is placed with the Cookie Company; therefore, she encouraged interested persons to make known their orders to their favorite Girl Scouts, prior to the deadline date of Nov. 30.

Five varieties are available in the family-size packages, each one-dollar and twenty-five cents. These include the traditional Shortbread (Scot-Teas), Sandwiches (Oxford), Lemon Sandwiches, Mint and Peanut Butter Sandwiches (Savannahs).

Mrs. Hensley said the cookie sales enable Penn's Woods to provide camping opportunities to Girl Scouts at a lower cost, they help provide an assist to the maintenance of camp properties owned and operated by the Council, and they also strengthen proposed camp development plans. She encouraged public support of the Cookie Sale.
