

Dallas Area matmen edge L-L Knights

In a nip and tuck match from the beginning, 187 lb. Gary Ostrum earned a four point major decision over the Knights' Paul Cilvik to edge out Lake-Lehman 24-23 in the Knights' gym. The win kept the Longmore trophy in the Mountaineers showcase.

With the score 20-17, Dallas, both grapplers went scoreless the first period. Ostrum picked up the first point of the bout on a locked hands call on Cilvik. He went in front 5-1 in the second period when he reversed Cilvik, then held him down for a three point near fall.

In the final stanza, Cilvik scored an escape but Ostrum put forth every effort to earn a two point takedown and with only seconds remaining went for a pin and added three points for a near fall to take a 10-2 decision for four points on the board putting the win out of the Knights reach.

In an exciting and close bout, 98 lb. Mountaineer Jim Dierolf picked up a reversal with three seconds on the clock to score a 14-10 decision and put Dallas in front 3-0.

Brian Corbett worked over Dan White but couldn't keep the 105 lb. White down as Corbett won 7-0 to give Dallas a 6-0 lead.

The Knights went on the board for three points on Dave Kyle's 9-3 decision over 112 lb. Mark Cook and John Hannigan gave them three more by losing 7-4 to the Knights' 119 lb. Tom Tranell. Mountaineer Dave Dierolf scored the first fall of the meet by clamping 126 lb. Lew Thomas in 3:11.

With the match score 12-6, Hugo Jones tied it up and continued undefeated by clamping 132 lb. Dave Parrish in 3:48. Jones picked up an escape and a takedown in the second period to go ahead 3-0 before he turned over Parrish.

One hundred thirty eight pounds Drew Kirshner gave his all to earn a 3-1 decision over a tough Sid May to put the Mounts in front 15-12.

With 145 lb. Frank Hazeltine missing from the line up, sophomore Tom Stredny went varsity for the first time but gave up a three point 5-4 bout to Lake-Lehman's Jack Swire.

One-hundred fifty-five pound Bart Brace had little difficulty in outwrestling Rob Steele 7-0 to put the Mountaineers at 18-15.

One-hundred sixty-seven pounds Knight Dana Sutliff and Mount Dave Gramps battled to a 3-3 draw, with Gramps picking up a takedown in the first period and Sutliff earning one point on an escape. Sutliff gained another escape in the second period. Gramps went ahead on a one point escape, then gave up a point to Sutliff on a stalling call.

With the score at 20-17 and everything at stake for the Mountaineers Ostrum came through with his four point win to put the match out of reach of the Knights.

Heavyweight Mark Dragon had little trouble in clamping Dallas Jim Thomas in 1:42 to end the Back Mountain schools meet at 24-23.

Mike Solomon officiated at the meet.

TURNING POINT—Gary Ostrum rolls into the Knights' 185 lb. Paul Cilvik for a three point near fall to pick up four point major decision which was the turning point in giving the Mountaineers the match, 24-23, at the Knight's gym last Saturday.

GAR overcomes Lake-Lehman

The Grenadiers outscored the Lake-Lehman Knights throughout the entire game last Tuesday night to take the contest 87-66.

Both Bob Patton and GAR's Bob Zipko hit consistently for outside shots to lead both teams in the scoring. Patton sunk 12 goals from the court for 24 points and Zipko tossed in 13 for 26 points and made four from the foul line for a total of 30 points. Patton collected seven from the charity stripe to garner a total of 31 points.

The Grenadiers outscored the Knights 19-16 in the first quarter then went on to pull into a commanding 45-34 lead at the half. The Heights cagers picked up 21 points in both the third and fourth quarters while the Back Mountain team were successful in collecting only 16 each quarter.

Ernie DiGiuseppe chipped in five field goals for 10 points for the Knights and Bob Balliet sunk four and made one from the free line for nine points.

Terry McGoy helped the Grenadiers with 17 points, putting in seven from the court and three from the foul line and Larry Evans assisted with seven field goals for 14 points.

The Knights made good eight out of 13 tries from the line. G.A.R. sunk nine out of 14 from the free line.

The win put the Grenadiers at 3-0 going into their contest with Hanover last Friday while the Knights are looking for their first win.
