Oak Hill

by Bridgette Correale
"Hey Mom, why, when we're suppose to be going over the Brooklyn Bridge, are we taking the ferry?" asked our George as we rode up the ramp to the Staten Island Ferry in New York City. "Why, because we can't find the Brooklyn Bridge!" Could you believe it, 25 years (make it 50, combining my years and Vin's) being native New Yorkers and we could not find this large bridge? During our Easter holidays, we traveled to New York to visit the 1001 relatives, eat all the goodies that we don't have in Pennsylvania like, Nathan's specialties, Pannells, grain pies and dirty water frankfurters. Oh, what heartburn! While in New York we toured the sights, that is the ones we were able to find. The World Trade Center, which after you got through with the prices, you realized you have just donated to the poor of the world whether you wanted or not, rode down famous Broadway, up to Wall Street feeling the exciting beat of the City. After a half hour of looking for the Brooklyn Bridge, there was another beat I was going to feel for I kept saying, "it's up ahead, around the corner, keep driving." If you ever wanted to commit suicide, drive your car, when you don't know where you're going, in 95 degree heat, in New York City. In fact, I'm glad we didn't find the Bridge, I would have jumped or got thrown off. I kid about Brooklyn, but I really love it, especially when we are walking down the block my parents live on and Vin says, "This whole street smells like a big meatball." Not only were the Correales 'nuts' enough to visit New York there were several of our neighbors like the Tomasellis, who enjoyed Easter with relatives. The Hessions journeyed to Long Island; the Schleichs to Buffalo and the Clearys to Waverly, New York. We all agree, the best part of going away is coming back to Home Sweet Home. Speaking of returning home, Connie Brongo and Kay Sharpe have recently returned from their unforgettable bus trip to Florida. It's so unforgettable that everytime they see a local bus, their stomach churns. Belated birthday greetings to Terry Hrabrowchak and my sweet daughter Adele who celebrated their ninth birthday April 26; to Joey Namath his eighth on April 23 and to Tom Yoniski Jr. his 11, April 23. Jack and Mary Gesmundo had a house full when their children helped celebrate Easter and their wedding anniversary, by driving in. Marianne and Bob Regal with their youngsters, Joseph and Tiffany drove down from Buffalo, New York, while Joseph and Barbara along with their two children, came in from Long Island, New York. The Marquis enjoyed a pleasureable holiday, upstate New York driving through the Catskills and visiting with long time friends. Happy birthday to Kelly Austin who will celebrate her sixth birthday April 29. The Passarella's were delighted with their visit from their sister Janet Sheldon and family from Connecticut. Congratulations to Krissy Alansky, Kathy Hocker, Pat Hozempa and

Cindi Ricci who received their first Holy Communion, Saturday morning at Gate of Heaven. Birthday greetings to Ray Iwanowski, Jr. who will celebrate his 10 birthday May 2; to Lenny Burke, Jr. his seventh, April 28; Paul Onzik, nine years old, May 3 and to Allen Michaels, may 1 and Robert Michaels, May 2. The Hawks, Lorraine, Jimmy and Michael have recently returned from a sunny vacation in in Florida. Lehman Bicentennial Committee has declared, Saturday, May 8, as clean-up day in the township. Everyone is encouraged to help clean roads and areas around their property. To help clear away the bags and bundles, that I'm sure will accumulate, Hozey Hozempa and his crew will pick-up your garbage, providing it is placed on township roads. In our case, the designated road is Idetown Road. Do your share for a cleaner Oak Hill. While Hozey is on my mind - our sincerest best wishes to Kaye and Hozey Hozempa. The couple celebrated their 18th wedding anniversary April 26. Congratulations to Ted and Olga Kostrobala whose wedding anniversary was April 26. I'm allowed to announce neighbors and friends birthday in this column on one condition - that I print my own, (thank goodness it's just the date they want and not the amount). Well on Friday, April 30, this screw-ball of a reporter will celebrate a birthday and last week my parents asked what I wanted for this special day. At that time I didn't know what to ask for, but I do now...a new left leg. Saturday I dropped a full garbage pail on my left foot and hopped around for minutes with pain. Sunday, I closed the car door on the knee of that sore foot. If I keep this pace, by Friday I'll need a wheelchair!

medical-surgical department of Mercy Hospital, Wilkes-Barre. She is the former Kathleen Olex, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Olex of Wilkes-Barre. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. John F. Butler, 95 Ridge St., Shavertown, who celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary, April 15. They were honored by their children at a surprise party at their home on Saturday and an open house was also held at their home, Sunday afternoon, for friends and relatives. They have two children, Mrs. Sharon Luke, Essex Junction, Vt.; and John F. Jr., Millis, Mass., and five grandchildren. Sheldon Evans, Shavertown, received the Golden Graduate Award from Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science recently at a special awards ceremony for the Class of 1926. He received a certificate honoring him for 50 years of professional and public service.
