Back Mt. students earn awards

Three awards and prizes were presented to Back Mountain graduates of the Wyoming Seminary Day School, Forty Fort, during closing ceremonies, May 27.

The Harold and Mollie Cruikshank Award went to Mark Charles Sherman, Dallas. It yearly goes to the student in the top of the class voted the one who has done the most for the school by his (or her) service and character. The name of Hilary Gail Maslow, Shavertown, will be engraved on the school's team cup, as she won the Team Cup Award for her co-leadership of the winning Day School team, the Blue.

The Wyoming Seminary intermediate department assigns an equal number of all pupils to either the Blue or the White teams, which engage in various scholastic and athletic competitions throughout the school year. The Marjorie Harvey

Smith Memorial Prizes are awarded to the boy and girl on each of the school's two teams who have contributed the most to their team. Among the four winners of the prize was seventh grader Michael Polk, Dallas, Blue Team boy.
