

THE DALLAS POST Sports

Back Mt. Bicentennial Run, June 6

The Back Mountain Bicentennial Run will be held on Sunday, June 6 beginning at 11 a.m.

"In the spirit of '76 is the theme for the event which is now in the final planning stages. Many inquiries have been received from runners from all parts of Northeastern Pennsylvania. The event is open to male and female runners of all ages and localities.

The event is co-sponsored by the Back Mountain Cultural Center and the Dallas High School cross country program. Special assistance has been provided by the Wyoming Valley Striders (A.A.U.).

Planning groups include the Back Mountain Cultural Center, Back Mountain Jaycees, Back Mountain Police Association, Dallas Booster Club, Dallas High School Key Club, Dallas Junior Women's Club, Dallas Kiwanis, Dallas

American Legion, and Dallas Rotary.

Members from the groups will be on hand on the day of the race to present the various awards. Also aiding in the race plans are the Dallas cheerleaders who will serve as safety spotters. The Dallas Borough and Dallas Township Police forces who will provide course safety, and the Red Cross who will provide first aid stations.

The group extended special thanks to Diane Masoner publicity; Joe O'Donnell, finance chairman; and Jack Barbose, course coordinator.

The run will begin and finish at College Misericordia, traveling 10.3 miles through the scenic Back Mountain area. The course will provide the runners with a competitive route, while also providing many spectators viewing areas for interested people.

Maps are currently available at many local businesses and will also be available on the day of the race at College Misericordia. Several comfort stations will be set up along the course to provide Gatorade and ice, while the Red Cross will man two first aid stations at strategic spots.

In addition to the safety measures taken, College Misericordia has made available shower and locker room facilities.

Awards will be presented in the following classes. First through tenth place overall, oldest finisher, youngest finisher, first female finisher, and first and second place team awards (based on five man teams). In addition all competitors will receive a commemorative tee-shirt.

Entries should be directed to either of the meet directors Tim Bauman, 53 Grandview Ave., New Goss Manor, Dallas, (675-0454) or Lew Isaac, Box 195, Dallas, (675-0569).

Entries will be accepted until 10:30 a.m. the day of the race. Registration and course information sessions will be held in the College Misericordia parking lot running from 9 a.m. to 10:45 a.m. on the race day.

Harveys Lake Rod, Gun Club plans food plot

Regular monthly meeting was held at the Harveys Lake Rod and Gun Club's clubhouse on Monday, May 24th, with approximately 20 members present.

Plans are under way to plant a "food plot" again this year.

It was noted that since the club is affiliated with the Luzerne County Federation of Sportsmen's Club members are invited to attend their meetings which are held the second Monday each month at Bone's Cafe (Blackman Street & Rte. 309, Wilkes-Barre) at 7:30 p.m.

There will be no turkey shoots until September, at which time they will resume on the third Sunday each month.

Plans are being made for the annual outing which will be held for members and guests on Aug. 15th. Information will be forwarded to all members in the near future.

The next regular monthly meeting will be held the last Monday of June at 8 p.m., at the clubhouse.

Girls at St. Andrew's

Camp St. Andrew, Tunkhannock Pa. is sponsoring its second year of girl's programming after 35 years of "boys only" camping, according to Rev. Joseph P. Kelly, Camp director.

Scheduled for June 13-26, the camping program includes swimming and boating on the camp's 60 acre lake, field activities such as softball and volleyball and instruction in archery, riflery and arts and crafts.

A basketball clinic for girls, grades 3-7 will be conducted June 13-18. Miss Jan Kresge, head coach of Riverside High School's girls basketball team will serve as clinic director.

The camp hosts another girls clinic, grades 8-12 June 20-25. Mary Ann Egnatovich, assistant coach at Immaculate College and former coach at Carbondale Area High School will direct the clinic.

For additional information and applications write: Rev. Joseph P. Kelly, Camp St. Andrew, Box G, Tunkhannock, Pa. 18657.

John Reese plans mat clinic at WC

John Reese, nationally acclaimed wrestling coach at Wilkes College, will present his 18th annual mat clinic, Aug. 9 through 13 at the Wilkes College Gymnasium.

Dallas Mothers award jackets to senior athletes

The Dallas Mothers' Club recently presented jackets to 77 senior class members of various athletic organizations. Each coach presented members of his or her team with either a blue or white jacket with the sport printed on the jacket and a numeral on the sleeve.

The yearly project of the Dallas Mothers' Club was organized last year under the direction of Mrs. Mona Dymond, president. Other officers are Mrs. Mary Purcell, vice-president; Mrs. Nancy Crane, treasurer; Mrs. Peg Johnson, secretary. Mrs. Loretta Thomas is publicity chairman.

Westmoreland students hold play day

Every pupil and teacher of the Westmoreland Elementary School participated in the school's annual play day last Thursday. The teachers ran 14 different events, including kickball, basketball, dodge ball, broad jump, dashes, relays, ball toss, horse-shoes, bean bag toss, hop-scotch horizontal bar, bowling and ring toss games.

Each pupil from kindergarten to fourth grade was a member of an ungraded team, having the opportunity of making points for his team at 12 different games.

The students participated in six events in the morning, had a picnic with bag lunch at noon, a half hour talent show (rest time) and participated in six events in the afternoon. At 3 p.m. the teams' scores were tallied and each student of the winning teams received a trophy.

They then went to their rooms where they were treated to an orange drink, compliments of the P.T.A.
