

Oak Hill

by Bridgette Correale
 "Extra, extra, read all about it!" Lehman Jackson Giants won the first half in Little League competition. And if that isn't enough, their coaches, Oak Hill's Walter Blejwas, Harry Haelele and Vince Correale, have the honors of coaching the Back Mountain National League All Stars. There goes Ireland, France, Belgium, and Italy...

 Speaking of winners-girls softball team, Lehman Indians, coached by Marge Angelicola and Lois Casterline, won their first game in two years. I was so excited when I heard, I didn't get to hear who they played and what the score was. Congratulations sluggers!

 Birthday greetings to my good friend Jane Yoniski who will celebrate a birthday June 10.
 Happy to hear that 'Uncle Mike' Passarella is recuperating at home following surgery and to help him along is daughter, Donna graduated from College Misericordia on the dean's list with a 3.8 average. That's my 'paisano!' Best wishes are extended to Ken Orkwis and Lenore Yanchik who will become husband and wife this coming Saturday.

 Sincere good wishes to all Lake Lehman graduates and to the following neighbors upon their graduation from Gate of Heaven School. Walter Blejwas, Jr., Tom Boyle, Martha Hession, Jane Merrill, Jim Michaels, and Mary Jane Onzik.

 Everytime I hear of a farmer dance, I remember the first time we went to one. Bad enough I didn't know 'ala-man left' from 'swing your partner' to have everyone 'doe-si-doeing' on my wig. (You don't forget things like that!) Well, the Ladies Auxiliary of the Lehman Fire Company promises the same fun (only I won't wear a wig) June 18 at the Lehman Jackson Junior High School.
 The theme of the evening will be Bicentennial and the Paul Revere of the dance will be Red Jones. Guests are encouraged to wear costumes, but are welcomed with or without. Door prizes will be awarded and tickets may be purchased by contacting Kay Hozempa, Chris Sutton or Kate McDay.
 Shawn Borton and Rebecca Gregg shared their seventh birthday with a party for their Gate of Heaven first grade classmates on June 2 and June 6.
 Congratulations to John and Helen Kishkill. The couple will celebrate an anniversary June 14.

 Happy birthday to Steve Menges whose big day is June 14.
 The Bickings, the Gordons and his wife Irene, wish to thank Tom Smith, the hop-a-long of the camping set for doing all the cooking, setting up and whatever, on their recent trip to 1,000 Isalnds, Canada. Tom really did a lot, he broke his toe while hitching the trailer to the car and his tires gave them trouble causing them to stop several times.
 The Belasco's hosted a buffet dinner in honor of the Angelicola's. Many friends attended, but were very careful of what they said in front of this reporter. In fact Leo Bartz kept reminding everyone "be aware, you know who's here."
 "Mom, Mr. Rebar doesn't need to mow his lawn." Mom, "How come?" George, "he has horses, rabbits and turkeys, who chew up the grass. Can't we get some of those animals?" This and a hundred other suggestions were put to me following Gate of Heaven's first graders enjoyable visit to the Rebar's farm. Think I'm getting the message. First a fellow with the initials T.J. said "Bridgette, I'll meet you in the tunnel of love." Upon arrival at Ghost Town In The Glen, I find out there's no love tunnel. Then Denny Dobbinick said he would drive my car home providing I behave myself. This is kinda depressing, if you know what I mean.
