Money talks, but who can keep it long enough to start a conversation?

...
Nothing gives us a bigger headache than the headache commercials on television.

...
An old-timer is a fellow who remembers when folks rested on Sunday instead of Monday.

...
A rare gift is what any woman receives after five years of marriage.

self one of those organic gardeners. I don't think a bug would dare invade his garden—he keeps it so sanitary. He tells me how bad all this commercial fertilizer and pesticides are for you. I've caught him cheating a couple times though. I think they all do!

I don't care what the organic gardeners do. I'm not putting cow pies in my succatash!

Have you heard that we are too expensive for your taste? At Tavel you will find: fresh tomato souffles, crepes de homard a la Newburg or an omelette filled with shrimp in a tomato sauce.

All of these are priced between $3.00 and $4.75. And for those of you who haven't devoured a croissant since the last time you crossed the Atlantic, put your plane tickets away.

All of this and more from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Sundays at
