Ripcords

Conyngham. Dave, too, started under Don's instruction and now has over 1,000 jumps. After many years of jumping, Dave turned his attention to flying and now holds private, commercial, and instrument licenses. Since flying is half of the game of jumping, the Ripcords are glad to have a qualified parachutist at the wheel, knowing well the demands placed on the pilot to make a successful exhibition possible.

For the neophyte who wishes to learn the sport, the club conducts a training school at the Hazleton Airport.

POT LUCK

Said the cannibal chef, "It's taboo
To use substitutes in the stew.
All the deacons you dish up
Won't equal one bishop;
It isn't how many — it's who."
