Jaycees magic show coming next week

CB CLUB—Members of the Back Mountain CB Club and their families meet monthly to discuss plans for their seasonal and annual projects and programs. Shown above are children of some of the members enjoying pizza and soda and proudly displaying the trophy awarded to the Back Mountain Club for being the largest in this section of the country.

Back Mountain Jaycees discussed plans for an upcoming show by Harmes Threatical Productions during their meeting last week. Performances will be held Oct. 23 at the Dallas Jr. High School at 10:30 a.m. and 1 p.m. Tickets will be sold at the door for the 1 p.m. show. The 10:30 a.m. show is sold out.

Tickets have been donated to St. Michaels, Big Brother and Big Sister and the Intermediate Unit of Kirby Health Center. Proceeds will benefit community projects. Sonny Smith and Norb Schneider are co-chairmen.

The bi-monthly glass recycling drive will be held on Saturday, Oct. 30, at the Shavertown Methodist Church upper parking lot, Pioneer Avenue, Shavertown. Glass of all colors will be collected from 9 a.m. to noon. No aluminum will be collected. John Mannear and Wendell Jones are co-chairmen.

The annual super market sweep is now under way with $450 worth of groceries to be awarded.

First prize is a three minute sweep for up to $300. The winning ticket will be drawn on Nov. 13, just in time for Thanksgiving, with the sweep taking place on Nov. 17. Ken Morris and Ron Jones are co-chairmen.

The board meeting will be held at the home of Joe Stager on Oct. 19 at 7:30 p.m. Members are welcome. The next regular monthly meeting will be held at Irem Temple Country Club on Tuesday, Nov. 2, at 7:30 p.m. All men between the ages of 18 and 35 are welcome to attend.

Trucksville Cubs plan first meeting

The first pack meeting for Trucksville Cub Pack 155 is scheduled for Friday evening, Oct. 15, at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held in the Trucksville Methodist Church educational building.

The theme will be a Halloween party. All cub scouts participating will be dressed in original self made costumes for which prizes will be awarded.

The Webelo division held its first meeting on Monday evening Oct. 4th at the church. The meeting was a father and son orientation. The Webelos will meet each Monday evening at the church at 7 p.m.

The cub pack accepted applications from 21 new boys and will add them to the 45 previously enrolled from last year. The cub pack also accepted applications from the following adult volunteers and welcomes them to the organization: Daniel Williams, Webelo leader, William Mathers assistant cubmaster, Shirley Moyer, Florence Gauthier, Florence Zimmerman, and Beverley Dellarte den mothers.

Adult members re-registered from previous years include: Roger E. Griffith, committee chairman; John Roman, cubmaster; Linda Griffith, publicity; Lillian Price, awards; June Supey, Judy Coscia, Marian Woolbert, Dottie Hoover, Betty Mathers Arlene Sutton, den mothers.

Learning packet offered

Parents of preschoolers in Luzerne County can get helpful and timely information on all aspects of rearing young children from "Toddler Topics."

"Toddler Topics" is a learning packet of information developed by Josephine Kotch, extension home economist for Luzerne County. Topics covered include foods for preschoolers, new foods, overweight children, health safety, child play and creativity, fatherhood, children's clothing, discipline, dental health, feelings and emotions, and dealing with a sick child.

To get free copies of "Toddler Topics" learning packet, call or write the Luzerne County Penn State Cooperative Extension Service office, 5 Water St., Courthouse Annex, Wilkes-Barre.

The first mailing will take place in mid-November.
