Browns to observe golden anniversary on Nov. 10

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy A. Brown of Lehman, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary on Nov. 10. They were married in St. Phillips Episcopal Church in Grand Rapids, Mich., by the late Rev. Ellis A. Christian. Attendants were Mrs. Doris Gains and Edward J. Brown. The couple will renew their vows at 1 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 6 in the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church, Main St., Dallas, with the Rev. John S. Prater officiating.

Mrs. Brown is the former Louise Jones, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Jones of Grand Rapids, Mich. Brown is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Brown of Wilkes-Barre.

The couple has one

Joan Parker, John Strinkoski married

Joan Marie Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Parker, 20 Westminster Drive, Dallas, and John Thomas Strinkoski, son of Stanley Strinkoski, 20 Timpson Street, Ashley, and the late Eleanor Dennis Strinkoski, exchanged marriage vows Oct. 2 at the Gate of Heaven Church, Dallas. The Rev. Stephen McGough performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted by her father, was attired in a formal gown of ivory chiffonette over peau taffeta. An empire bodice featured a high rounded neckline with a fitted collar and full bishop sleeves with lace inserts tapering into wrist ruffles.

A sheer neckline insert of swiss net was adorned with Schiffler embroidery and accented a rose medallion insert bordered with seed pearls. A full skirt with a flounced hemline cascaded into a chapel length train. The entire flounce at the bottom of the skirt was outlined with a panel of English net superimposed with Schiffler embroidery.

Her elbow length mantilla was edged in Swiss Lace attached to a matching lace Camelot enhanced by separate bouffant blushes. She carried a bouquet of ivory roses with babybreath and ivy cascading softly from matching streamers.

The bride's mother was attired in a romance blue Qiana formal gown, fashioned with a deep V neckline, self cumberbund and long sleeves enhanced with a cuff of matching Ostrich feathers above a bell shaped skirt. She wore a gardenia corsage.

Miss Ellen Marie Parker, the bride's sister was maid of honor. She chose a burgundy formal silk knit gown fashioned with a high-rise loose bodice featuring a scoop neckline, long full sleeves with a set-in sash at the front of the waist and was semi-welted displaying a free flowing backskirt. Her headpiece was a Gatsby pictures hat accented with streamers matching the gowns of the bridesmaids, which were identical in a dusty rose shade. Each attendant carried two pink roses with baby breath and ferns and pink lace streamers.

The bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Peters, Philadelphia, a cousin of the groom, and Edward Gaughan, were ushers. James A. Parker, Robert B. Parker, Anthony Joseph, Thomas C. Culey and Robert Bayer, Jr. chauffeured the wedding party to the Holiday Inn, Wilkes-Barre, where a dinner reception was held.

The groom's father hosted a rehearsal dinner for the bridal party at the Castle Inn, Dallas.

Mrs. Strinkoski is a graduate of Dallas High School and received an associate degree in general studies from Keystone Junior College, La Plume. Strinkoski is a graduate of Ashley-Sugar Notch High School and Wilkes College, Wilkes-Barre, where he received a bachelor of arts degree in economics. He served as an officer in the United States Army for five years.

The couple will reside in Phoenix, Ariz. after taking a motor trip to New Orleans, La., for their honeymoon. He has accepted a position with S.S. Kresge, Inc., Phoenix, Ariz.
