Jay-C-Ettes will conduct CPR

The Back Mountain Jay-C-Ettes held their monthly meeting on Monday, Oct. 11, at College Misericordia, discussing a pending CPR course and hearing a program on fire prevention.

Carolyn Bulford and Shirley Kishbaugh of internal programs committee presented Jim Davies and Bob Beseker of the Dallas Fire & Ambulance Association who presented a program on fire causes and prevention.

A report was given by Glenda Pomrinke on the first aid course now underway at the Dallas Borough Building. CPR, cardiopulmonary resuscitation, will begin on Nov. 4, and continue for three Thursday evenings from 7 until 10 p.m. The course is offered in cooperation with the American Red Cross. Certificates will be issued upon successful completion.

Cardiopulmonary resuscitation is the life-saving technique of maintaining breathing and heartbreathing of a heart attack victim. The course is open to the public. No preregistration is necessary. The course will be held at the Dallas

Dallas-Kingston Twp.

by Charlot M. Denmon
Mrs. Stanley Kacinski is ill at her home at 107 Summit St., Shavertown. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schneider, Davenport Street, have returned home from Virginia where they visited Williamsburg, Yorktown and Jamestown. Mrs. Kenneth Rowe, Shavertown, is a patient in Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. Her husband is Rev. Rowe, pastor of the Park Neighborhood Free Methodist Church.

Congratulations to Robert A. Kelly, Dallas, who has been named director of annual funds at College Misericordia. Members of the 1975 class at Dallas High School are in the news these days. Jeff Supulski has been playing outstanding football for the Cornell freshman team; Bruce Riefenstahl has made the basketball team at University of Pittsburgh; Brian Sickler is one of three freshmen who dress for Miami University varsity games and last Saturday played quarterback position for part of the game, as well as punted in the 49-0 win over Texas Christian; and Frank Hazeltine is working out for the wrestling team at Bloomsburg State College.

Allen Earl Brown of Dallas has received word that he has successfully completed the State Bar examinations. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Brown.

Eric Dingle, Trucksville, has also received word that he successfully completed the state examinations.

We extend best wishes to Nita Perry, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Williams, Jr., of Trucksville, who married Donald A. Moser of Weatherly, recently in Carverton United Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Riefenstahl attend the recent Parents Day activities at University of Pittsburgh where their son, Bruce, is a freshman.
