Mr. and Mrs. Max Dreher

Dreher's observe 50th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Max Dreher, 147 Park Street, Dallas, will observe their 50th wedding anniversary, Thursday, Nov. 18.

They were married at St. Nicholas Church, Wilkes-Barre, by the Rev. Frank Goeckel.

Mrs. Dreher is the former Melusine Schreiber, Austria. Mr. Dreher is a native of Germany.

The Dreher's have lived in Dallas for the past 34 years. Mr. Dreher retired in 1965 from his position of machinist at Hess Goldsmith, where he worked for 37 years.

The couple are the parents of two sons, Max, Campbell, N.Y.; and Herbert, Dallas. They also have two grandsons and two granddaughters.

They will be honored at a dinner for family and close friends, Nov. 20, at the Castle Inn, Dallas.

Cyphers, Barbacci wed at Carverton

Miss Patti Ann Cyphers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sharps R. Cyphers of Box 30, RD 3 Wyoming, became the bride of James G. Barbacci, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Barbacci of RD 1 Lake Road, Noxen recently at the Carverton Methodist Church.

The Rev. Paul Bauer performed the double ring ceremony.

The bride, escorted by her father to the altar, was attired in an original white Qiana formal gown with a molded bodice enhanced with venise lace which also complimented the mandrin neckline and long slim sleeves, above a flowing circular skirt extending to a cathedral train. Her formal veil of venise lace on French illusion was arranged to a matching juliet cap. Her hand bouquet consisted of white roses, stephonitis tipped in blue and baby's breath.

Ms. Sally Sperl, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She chose a sky blue nysta formal halter gown fashioned with a grecian bodice above a circular skirt and was complimented with a matching capelette jacket edged in french stitching. Her headpiece was a matching juliet cap. She carried a long stemmed white rose tipped in blue with streamers.

Dwight Barbacci, brother of the groom was best man. Jack Barbacci, brother of the groom, and Jack Mokychic, cousin of the bride, served as ushers.

An afternoon reception was held at the Idetown

Fire Hall after which the couple left on a wedding trip to New York and Hawaii. The couple will reside in Noxen.

The bride was feted at a variety shower at the Castle Inn, Dallas, given by Sally Sperl, maid of honor mother of the bride, Elizabeth Cyphers, aunt of the bride and Betty Mokychic, cousin of the bride. Parents of the groom entertained at a rehearsal dinner at their home.

Karen Walter and Rose Burleigh were welcomed as new members.

Sandy Mannear reported that bibs were purchased for the Leader Nursing Home, Kingston. They will be donated shortly.

Glenda Pomrinke stated that the price of the CPR manikin being purchased for the Back Mountain Area has increased. The manikin should arrive sometime in the beginning of the year.

Mary Ann Friar was selected again this year as Jay-c-ette representative to the Fall Fair Association. Chris Bachman noted that Gourmet Club Ticket Books are still available. These benefit the Back Mountain Council on Drug and Alcohol Abuse.

A Thanksgiving bake sale will be held at the Holiday Market, Dallas on Wednesday, Nov. 24 from 1 to 6 p.m. Pumpkin pies and other traditional Thanksgiving baked goods will be available.

Rose Schmid and Carolyn Bulford are co-chairmen. Proceeds are used for Jay-c-ette community and club projects.

Christmas cards will be sent by members of the club to guests of local rest and convalescent homes who are not remembered at Christmas.

The December meeting will be a Christmas evening with the Dallas Women's Club Choral presenting a program of song. The evening will begin at 7:30 in the auditorium of College Misericordia. Refreshments will be served. Members may bring guests.
