MR. & MRS. FREDERIC HOWELL

A Shavertown man and wife who died inside the garage of their home from carbon monoxide poisoning after leaving a suicide note were buried Tuesday afternoon in Forty Fort Cemetery.

Frederic B. Howell, 84, and Alice Cary Smith Howell, 80, of 145 N. Pioneer Avenue, Shavertown were pronounced dead Saturday at 5:15 p.m. by Deputy Coroner Richard Disque and Chief Deputy Coroner Joseph Shaver.

Luzerne County Coroner Dr. George Huddock said death was caused by asphyxia due to carbon monoxide poisoning.

Neighbors found the couple slumped in their car which was parked inside the garage. A letter found inside the home reportedly expressed their concern about their declining health and age.

Funeral was held from the Harold C. Snowdon Funeral Home, 140 N. Main St., Shavertown, Tuesday afternoon with Rev. Robert DeWitt Yost, pastor, Shavertown Methodist Church, officiating.

Howell is survived by sisters, Mrs. Theodore Abbot, Forty Fort and Mrs. Ruth Wolfe, Cincinnati.

Mrs. Howell is survived by a nephew, Sheldon Field Smith, Vista, Calif.

The couple had resided in the Back Mountain since 1927. Mrs. Howell was one of the founders of the Back Mountain Memorial Library.

Howell was a retired Wilkes-Barre GAR Memorial High School teacher of architectural and mechanical drawing for 34 years.

Mrs. Howell was born in Dunmore and was graduated from West Pittston High School in 1914.
