Five students from Lake-Lehman High School have been selected to participate in the Northeast District 9 Chorus Festival to be held at Dallas High School this Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Renee Harabin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harabin of Chase Manor, Shavertown, has been active in the senior high chorus for three years and has had leading roles in the school's musicals. Renee is also co-captain of the cheerleading squad and vice-president of the senior class.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Harding of Noxen, Wanda Harding has been a first alto in the senior high chorus for the past three years and has been active in musicals. She is a member of the junior class.

Jay Harris, a senior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Harris of Chase Road, Shavertown. In addition to his activities with the senior high chorus, he is a member of the Lake-Lehman Band and recently was selected for district band. For the past three years, Jay has participated in the school's musical productions.

Miralie Long is the daughter of Mrs. Charles H. Long of Sweet Valley. She is the senior class historian, president of the senior high chorus and a varsity field hockey player. This year Miralie is the student director of "110 In The Shade," the school's musical production to be held in March.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sherwood of Shavertown, Scott Sherwood, a first tenor, has received numerous awards in choral activities. A senior, Scott has participated in district and regional choral festivals for the past three years.

This year Scott represented Lake-Lehman and Northeast Pennsylvania at all-state chorus in Pittsburgh and will sing at the National All-Eastern Seaboard Music Festival in Washington, D.C. in February.

In addition, Scott has held major roles in the school's dramatic and musical productions. In this year's production of "110 In The Shade," Scott plays the role of "File," one of the main characters.

Miss Jane Morris is director of choral activities at Lake-Lehman High School.

Oak Hill

Happy birthday to Bobbie De Giosa whose birthday will be Feb. 2.

While many of us viewed our President's inaugural festivities on television, several thousands were honored with an invite to personally attend. One of those lucky Americans was Eileen Marquis, daughter of our friends Harry and Betty.

Congratulations to John and Mary Elenchik who will celebrate their 42nd wedding anniversary Saturday, Jan. 29. John and Mary's pride and joy are their 11 grandchildren.

Jan. 30 happens to be a special day for Terry Cummings, Joe Gerchak and Hank Tuck. It's their birthday and we wish you all a happy day.

Best wishes are extended to Marie and Al Bellas who will honor a wedding anniversary Feb. 2.
