Is this your glass slipper?

by Bridgette Correale
One of the highlights of the Gate of Heaven's school year is the annual sports banquet. This year the dinner, sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Guild, will be held, Tuesday, March 22 beginning at 6:30 p.m. in the school gym.

A chicken dinner, French fries, baked beans and cole slaw, prepared by Kentucky Fried Chicken is on the menu. Adult and children price is $2.25 each.

This banquet is in recognition of both boy's and girl's basketball teams and cheerleaders.

Reservations, opened to all, will be received by Mrs. Betty Seagrave-Daly at 696-2916. Deadline is Sunday, March 20.

Belated birthday greetings to Helen Perrego who celebrated her day March 3 and to Joe Hand.

Sincere sympathy to Ann and Hop Rowlands upon the death of Hopkins Rowland, Sr.

Saturday morning, several local youngsters were as pleased as could be as they shared their Sacrament of Penance at Gate of Heaven Church. Receiving were Tom Hession, George Correale, Melissa Yoniski, Len Burke, Scott Kerkowski, Erin Cleary, Michael Garnett, Linda Babetski, Donna Sue James and Molly Boyle. Congratulations to Jim Eason of Briarcrest Road. Jim was recently inducted into the Kings College Men's National Honor Society.

Sporting a cast on her left arm is roller derby queen, Barbra Stradus. Need I say how she broke it.

Elementary PTA to meet Mar. 15

Regular meeting of the Lake Elementary PTA will be held March 15 at 7 p.m. in the Lake Elementary School cafeteria. Theme for the evening will be "Testing."

Stephen Placko will be the guest speaker for the meeting. Placko is guidance counselor for Lake-Lehman Schools.

Some topics to be discussed at the meeting will be the candy sale, upcoming balloon day, spring dinner dance and further projects.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting. Babysitting will be provided.

Returning from visiting her sick mother in England is Lorraine Leonard. Born in England, Lorraine was happy to see relatives and friends she hadn't seen in years.

Happy birthday to Ozzie Osborne whose birthday is March 9, to Malcolm Burnside, March 10 and to Jim Michaels, March 12.

Our good wishes to the Back Mountain Elementary Wrestling team who wrestled their way to the league championship.

Sixty youngsters from grades one through six, under the guidance of Walt Hennbault, Joe Walko and Ray Dennis were undefeated as they competed against seven Pennsylvania areas.

This coming Sunday, the individual youngsters will compete in the league tournament to be held at West Side Tech, Pringle.

Oak Hill's Kathy Schleich will display her art work at Kennedy Lounge, College Misericordia, Sunday from 2 to 4. The public is cordially invited.

If there's a diet you want to know something about, just call me, the odds are I know all about it. In fact the new diet I'm trying is the Seven Day Oriental Diet. It's terrific if you want skinny feet.

I'm not kidding, for three weeks now, I've been eating cabbage soup and brown rice that I feel like a stuffed rice ball, but I have lost some weight - somewhere in my feet.

Now how would I know my feet are thinner - two days this week I managed to walk right out of my shoes. The embarrassing part was one time I was so busy, I didn't even miss the shoe until after I traveled several feet and a customer came up to me and said, "Is this your glass slipper?"
