Bell speaker on LCW program

A Bell of Pennsylvania demonstration-talk, "Science is not Magic," will be presented at a covered-dish dinner meeting of the LCW at St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Tuesday, April 26. The presentation will follow the dinner which will begin promptly at 6:30 p.m.

Ms. Anna Cervenak, a full-time Bell speaker based at Harrisburg, will present the 30-minute, experiment-filled demonstration. In the unusual presentation, she will play a dual role of magician and scientist.

By using a number of props, Ms. Cervenak will demonstrate how Bell System scientists, engineers and technicians, working through a unified system, use science, not magic, to develop and provide necessary communications systems today and for the future.

She pointed out that the unified system consists of Bell Labs, the Western Electric Company, and the operating companies of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, including Bell of Pennsylvania.

We cordially invite all women of the church to attend this informative program and encourage them to bring a friend.

Last week to register for screening

All Back Mountain residents are reminded this is the last week to make an appointment for the heart screening program sponsored by the Dallas Junior Woman's Club and the American Heart Association, Northeastern Pennsylvania Chapter.

Appointments must be made with Mrs. Basil Russin, Haddonfield Hills Dallas. She will accept appointments 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Monday thru Friday until April 22 until all are filled which ever comes first.

The screening will consist of weight, height, blood pressure, cholesterol, and electrocardiogram. A personal and family medical history are also included. There is a $6 fee charged for the services.

Mrs. Edward Narkiewicz has been in charge of the arrangements for the club. Dr. Benjamin Berley is president of the local chapter of the American Heart Association, Mrs. Priscilla Williams is executive director and Miss Carol Hewitt is field representative.

Mrs. Evan Bonawitz is president of the Dallas Junior Woman's Club.

Back Country Briefs

Annual benefit carnival of Franklin Township Volunteer Fire Company will be held July 21-23 on the fire company grounds in Orange. Kiddie and adult rides and refreshments will be among the features at this year's affair. Parade will be held Saturday evening, July 23 at 7.

Incidentally, volunteer fire fighters of Franklin and Northmoreland Townships welcomed the ban imposed Tuesday by Governor Milton Shapp on fires. Firemen literally were 'run ragged' last week responding to calls for assistance from brush fires in the area, answering 10 calls to brush fires in the Northmoreland-Franklin Townships area.

Three of the brush fires were put out on Saturday and firemen spent their usual day of rest on Sunday washing fire fighting equipment at the fire hall in Orange.

Lot of bologna

A big 'thank you' came from Harold Hoover of Orange, who served as chairman for the fire company's hoagie sale on Saturday. A total of 1,392 hoagies were sold in Saturday's fundraiser and Hoover expressed thanks and appreciation to all those who assisted in the hoagie sale - especially the patrons.

Ben Crofchik, the Centermoreland village grocer, came in for a lot of praise. Ben sliced the bolognas that went into the hoagies and that was a lot of bologna.

Among others, who helped in the hoagie sale, were Mrs. Althea Dymond, president of the fire company auxiliary; Kim Bedford, Louis Bedford, Mrs. Doris Bedford, Mrs. Marlene Shaver, Mrs. Romaine Kunkle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Appleby and son, Bob; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Roberts, Mrs. Sandy Forster, Mrs. Myrtle Hoover, Miss Donna Hoover, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Warman, Mrs. Thelma Witkowski, Mrs. Mae Phillips, Ron Witkowski, Mrs. Edie Shupp, Mrs. Elmer Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Race, Arthur Owen, Mrs. Donna Owen, Charles Davis, Mrs. Debbie Williams, Mrs. Trish Davis, Daniel Williams, Joe Kubiski, Mrs. Roberta Gardner, Richard Love, Mrs. Kay Love, Mrs. Marian Kubiski, Tim Earl, Tony Sosnoski, Mrs. Gertrude Smith, Russell Dymond, Mrs. Catherine Bartholomew, Kelly Ann Davis, Mrs. Mary Culver and Larry Bary.

Flowers that adorned the altar for Sunday morning's worship service at Carverton UM Church were given by the UM Women of the church. Carverton UM Women are planning a bazaar for Saturday, October 10.

Flowers on the altar in Centermoreland UM Church for Sunday morning's service were presented in honor of Miss Elna Wium on her 25th birthday anniversary, which she observed in South Africa. Miss Wium is the likeable legal secretary of Capetown, South Africa, who spent several weeks last summer as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Major of Centermoreland during which time she captured the hearts of Centermoreland folk. The Majors met the young miss

First Communion dates for both Blessed Sacrament Church in Centermoreland and St. Frances in Carverton were announced this week by the pastor, Rev. Father Thomas Croghan.

First communion at Blessed Sacrament Church in Centermoreland will receive the sacrament at the 10:30 mass on Mother's Day, May 7, at 10:30. At St. Frances Cabrini, First Communion will be administered on Sunday morning, May 15; confessions of the children will be heard Saturday, May 14, at 10:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Baird, Sutton Creek Road, hosted a meeting of the Council on Ministries of Orange UM Church Monday evening at their home.

Annual Pittston Ecumenical service will be held Sunday evening at 7:30 in St. John's Church, Pittston. Area Protestant Churchmen will join in the service.
