Dallas nine leads league

The Mountaineers defeated the Crestwood Comets, 4-1, last Friday to continue in the lead with a 5-0 record in Division 2 of the Wyoming Valley High School Baseball League. Southpaw Steve Skammer picked up his third win of the season with the Comets' Kevin Kenney taking the loss. The Mountaineers scored three runs in two and a half innings before Larry Detweiler relieved Kenney on the mound. Detweiler came into the game with one out and the bases loaded. He walked the first man to send in a run but from then on pitched no-hit ball.

The Mountaineers had only two hits scoring three of their four runs on walks. Kenney gave up seven and Detweiler one. John Thomas and Steve Jones collected the only hits for the Mounts, both of them singles. Skammer gave up five hits while striking out seven at the plate and walked two. Detweiler struck out nine men but the Comets were weak on the offense while the Mountaineers played good defense.

The Comets are 0-5 going into this week's final games of the first half. Earlier in the week, Dallas edged Wyoming Seminary, 7-5, behind the pitching of John Thomas. Thomas gave up the five runs on nine hits while striking out nine. He walked five. Thomas drove out two of the Mountaineers nine hits, one of them a double. Chuck Falcone and Dave Lipo had two hits each for the Mountaineers. Second baseman Steve Jones drove out a long double. Beyer had two hits for Seminary, one of them a hefty three bagger which brought in B. Zavada. Patterson was credited with the loss, striking out four men at the plate and walking three. The Mounts go against Seton Catholic and West Side Tech this week to end the first half.
