BRADLEY R. KITCHEN
Bradley Richard Kitchen, Pad 28, Freeman's Trailer Court, RD 1, Dallas, lost his life Saturday night when the motorcycle he was riding went out of control and crashed into a guard rail on Route 309 in Dallas Township about 1500 yards south of the Luzerne-Wyoming County line.

According to Dallas Township Police Chief Carl Meirs, Kitchen was operating his motorcycle northbound on Route 309 with two other friends riding cycles behind him when his vehicle apparently experienced mechanical trouble. Immediately thereafter Kitchen lost control, veered off the north side of the road and crashed into a guard rail. He was thrown from the motorcycle following the impact.

Kitchen was pronounced dead by Deputy Coroner Richard Disque. Luzerne County Coroner Dr. George Hudock attributed death to multiple traumatic injuries.

Born in Kingston, he lived in the Back Mountain Area most of his life. For five years, he was employed with Automobile Transport Inc., Mich., and worked out of the Baltimore terminal.

He was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown.

Kitchen is survived by his widow, the former Stacia Newberry; father, Jack Kitchen, Sr., Shavertown; mother, Gloria Atwell Elston, Dallas; sister, Karen Kitchen, Shavertown; brother, Jack B., Jr., with the army in Germany; and maternal grandparents, William Atwell, Moosic, and Mrs. Rose Meneeley, Shavertown.

Funeral was Wednesday from Blight Funeral Home, with Rev. Lynn Rothrock, pastor, St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown, officiating. Interment was in Memorial Shrine Cemetery, Carverton.
