

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kozemchak

Kozemchak's celebrate 25th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kozemchak, 183 Overbrook Ave., Dallas, will observe their 25 wedding anniversary on Tuesday. They were married June 7, 1952 by the late Rev. John O. Lindquist in Trinity Lutheran Church, Wilkes-Barre. Their attendants were Mrs. Sheldon MacAvoy of Shavertown, sister of Mrs. Kozemchak and Mr. Kozemchak's brother, Daniel, of Ashley. Mrs. Kozemchak is the former Nancy Ingrid Smith, daughter of Mrs. Ethel J. Smith of Shavertown and the late George Smith. She is employed as assistant librarian at the Back Mountain Memorial Library in Dallas. Her husband is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Roman Kozemchak of Dallas and is the purchasing and traffic manager at Energy Convertors, Inc. of Dallas.

The couple has two sons, Cliff, a senior at Connecticut College in New London, Conn., and Glen, a junior at East Stroudsburg State College, East Stroudsburg. A family dinner celebration will mark the occasion.

Newcomers meet to discuss projects

The joint board of the Wyoming Valley Newcomers Club meet at the First Eastern Bank, Dallas Branch, with the President Mrs. Paul Cotter, presiding.

There were discussions on new projects for the upcoming new year. The list of the club's charities were discussed and are as follows.

American Cancer Society, Trinity Presbyterian Church, St. Paul Lutheran Church, Jeannette Murphy's Son, Blind Association of Wilkes-Barre, Leader East Nursing Home, Valley Crest, Channel 44,

Juvenile Diabetes Association and Childrens Museum.

There will be a picnic for general membership to be held on June 12, or if rain
