Aging to receive legal services

A unique and innovative Common legal problems legal services program is being made available to area Senior Citizens through a joint program of the Luzerne-Wyoming Counties Office for the Aging and Legal Services of Northeastern Pennsylvania, Inc.

The Office for the Aging is funding the "Senior Citizens Law Project" which is designed to assist older persons in the areas of Law Reform, Community Education, and Consultation and Representation. In the area of law reform, the project will seek to challenge legislative or administrative practices which constitute an unfair burden on the elderly.
