

Hay ride concludes Noxen Bible school

An old fashioned wagon ride, drawn by two mules was given to the 148 youngsters, who attended the annual Daily Vacation Bible School of the Independent Bible Church of Noxen last week. The ride was a 'last day' extra for the children and was in charge of Joseph Newell and Walter Everett and their sons.

The youngsters enjoyed a full week of Bible study, scripture, memorization, handcrafts, music, games, and contests, and climaxed the week as guests at a film presentation, 'Happiness Is,' at church Sunday evening.

A daily puppet show was designed and presented by the following teenagers: Miss Debbie Tallent, who made the puppets; Miss
