

Mr. & Mrs. Harold C. Brace

Braces to celebrate 50th

Mr. and Mrs. Harold G. Brace, R.D. 3, Orange, Dallas, will observe their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday. They will be honored at an open house celebration on Sunday by their son and daughter at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Brace of Orange.

No invitations have been issued and friends and relatives are cordially invited to attend the open house Sunday from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Brace were married at the home of Mrs. Brace's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henshall, in West Pittston on Sept. 24, 1927, by the Rev. Wilson Treible, an uncle of Mrs. Brace.

She is the former Miss Marion Henshall of West Pittston. Brace is the son of the late Paul Brace and Mrs. Brace of Wyoming. The Braces are owners-operators of 'Brace's Orchard' in the Orange area and are widely known throughout the Back Mountain.

The couple have two children: Mrs. Eugene R. Miller of Hartford, Conn. and Lawrence Brace of Orange. They also have three granddaughters and a grandson.

Their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Miller, and granddaughters, Lois and Louise Miller, of Hartford, Conn., are spending the week here to celebrate Mrs. Miller's parents' 50th wedding anniversary.
