Haunted House event planned

The Greater Wilkes-Barre Jaycees and Jay-Cettes will be conducting a Haunted House fundraising event for the Northeast Pennsylvania Chapter-March of Dimes from October 14 through November 1.

The event will be held at 43 North Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre between the hours of 6 and 10 p.m. weekdays, and 1 to 5 p.m. and 6 to 10 p.m. weekends in a vacant building which will be decorated to suit the most ghoulish tastes.

Access to the March of Dimes Haunted House can be made via North Franklin Street, River Street (via Smith's Parkway) or North Main Street. Follow the signs. Admission will be $1.50 per person. Use of discount coupons, which will be published in local newspapers and money-off for identifiable groups of twenty-five or more, would reduce the price to $1.00 per person.

The daring element of the public is invited to attend and be guided through such rooms as the Ghoul's Dining Room, Dr. Frankenstein's Laboratory, the Morgue and the Torture Chamber. The Pumpkin Patch will be available for those too young-or too squeemish-to enter the House.

Plan to attend and help the March of Dimes prevent birth defects. Proceeds will be used to support the local programs of the Northeast Pennsylvania Chapter.
