Cardinals beat Dallas

The Mountaintop Cardinals, using a well balanced running attack, easily defeated the Dallas Cowboys 32-0 Sunday at the Crestwood High field.

Taking the opening kickoff on his own 30 yard line, Bob Bielman returned the ball to the Dallas 33. On the first play from scrimmage, Ken Osiecki raced the 33 yards for a touchdown. The two point conversion was made by Gene Schultz.

Cardinals kicked to the Dallas 33 yard line with no return. With a third and nine situation Dallas fumbled. It was recovered by John Erickson of the Cardinals. Then on an exchange of fumbles, with Frank Geroski getting his first of two recoveries, the Cards had the ball on the Dallas 26 yard line. Mark Grieco ran 12 yards for the first down. Gene Schultz then ran over the left side 14 yards for a touchdown. Conversion attempt failed.

An outstanding kick by Osiecki put Dallas deep in their own territory at the 5 yard line. Dallas again fumbled and Geroski had his second recovery at the 5 yard line. Dave Schultz ran to the right side and the Cards third touchdown. The extra point attempt failed.

The hard charging defensive line of Bielman, Mike Murray, John Erickson, Joe Boyd, and Dave Clayton had kept the pressure on the Dallas backfield.

The first quarter ended with the score Cardinals 20, Dallas 0.

The second quarter started with Dallas in possession on their own 26 yard line. After three plays Dallas was faced with a 4th and 12. A completed pass by Dallas was short of the first down on the 31 yard line on a hard tackle by Todd Dickinson.

Cardinals took possession.

Some fine running by Dickinson, John Scherer, D. Schultz, and Bielman found the Cards with a first and goal from the one foot line. Bielman, on a quarterback sneak, took it in for the TD. Again the point after was no good.

After the kick off the Cowboys were unable to move the ball and were forced to punt. The first half ended with the Cardinals in possession on their own 47 yard line.

The Cardinals kicked off to start the second half. The third quarter was all defense with some fine plays by Paul Erickson, Bruce Lehman, Ed Fronzoni, Tom Fasulka, and Jeff Boyd. The third quarter ended with Dallas having the ball on their own 10 yard line. A mix up on 4th down gave the ball to the Comets on the Dallas 15 yard line.

Jerry Roan's 209 was high game for both teams as his Wesley Citgo team shut out Steele's Restaurant in the Crown Major League. K. Confer topped pins for a big 204-215 (601) to lead Community Buick in taking three from Shavertown Lumber.

Dallas Shopping Center made it three over Franklin's Restaurant helped by B. Harris' 214 (560) and Gebhardt Bowling Supplies divided evenly with Hasay Chevrolet. R. Bonomo, Jr. posted a 516 for the bowling dealer while R. Bonomo, Sr. hit the pins for 550.

SAAB

THE COMMAND PERFORMANCE CAR

The more you ask of a Saab, the more you'll admire a Saab.

Ask it to take you into a tight turn with speed, and the Saab will answer with the inherent stability of front-wheel drive.

Ask it to make a sudden course correction, and its rack and pinion steering will respond immediately.

Command the Saab, suddenly to stop. And it will—quickly and safely—because it comes with power-assisted disc brakes on all four wheels.

Ask Saab for power, and you'll get more than any car in its class, from the 115 h.p.

fuel-injected 2 litre over-head cam engine. Inside, there's luxury and comfort. A heated, orthopedically designed driver's seat. Plush upholstery. And ample room in the back for three adults.

But Saab is more than a list of worthy features. It's the way these features work together that produces Saab's uniquely balanced performance.

Test drive a Saab at your nearest Saab dealer. And remember to ask a lot of it.

Then you'll know how much it has to give.
