

Last chance for Fall Festival

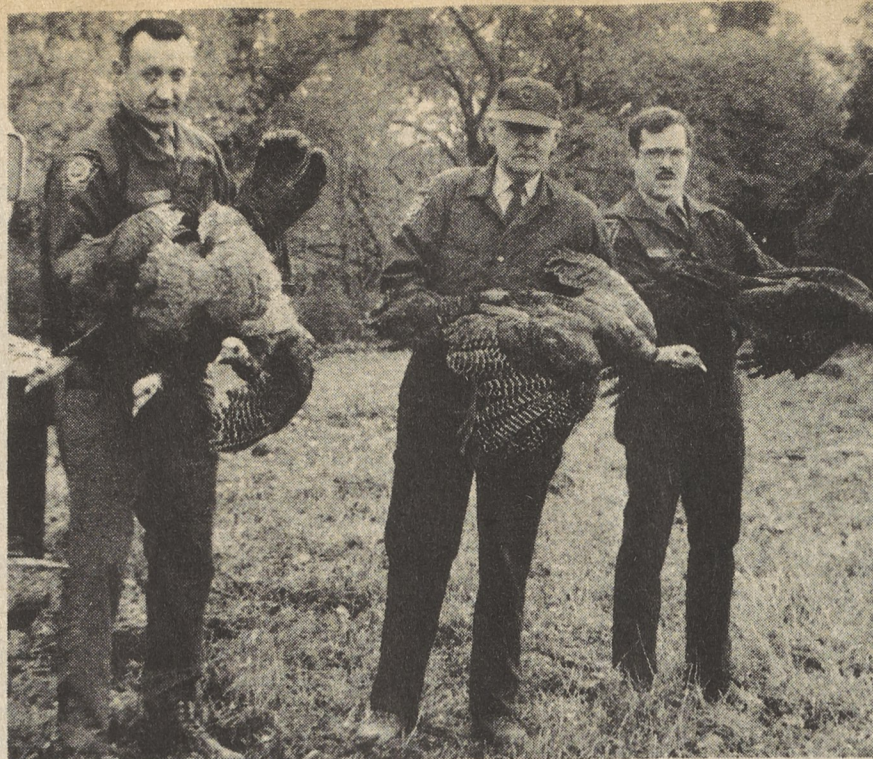

Bob Hislop and Bob Pickett, co-chairmen of the Dallas Booster Club's Fall Festival, remind members and other area residents that the dinner-dance is this Friday, Oct. 21 at the Irem Temple Country Club.

Dinner is at 7 p.m. followed by music for dancing from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

The co-chairmen remind residents that admission is by reservation only. No tickets will be sold at the door. If there are persons interested in attending who do not have tickets, it is suggested that they contact Hislop or Pickett immediately in the event they have additional reservations or cancellations.

TURKEYS FOR THANKSGIVING—The Game Commission released 158 wild turkeys in the Back Mountain on Tuesday morning, in time for hunters to bag them for Thanksgiving. Ed Gdosky, game protector; John Ymezon, deputy game protector; and Doug Killough, game protector trainee, are shown releasing some of the birds. The turkeys were raised at the Loyalsock Game Farm. WILKES-BARRE FATS

When Notre Dame plays a football game it is a major happening, an event, New Year's Eve. Notre Dame has more fans than any college football team that has ever played the game of football.

There are those that believe Notre Dame is football. The Mecca of football is in South Bend and it was started by the great Knute Rockne.

Saturday was a prime example of the Irish's drawing power as over 72,000 rolled into the finest football facility we've seen, the Meadowlands in New Jersey.

They came to see the Fighting Irish beat-up on the Army. Despite poor coaching and a lack of the caliber of athletes which were the ND colors, Army gave them a tough workout.

As many times as we've seen the Irish play in person they've yet to play an away game. Sure there is a mystique about Notre Dame with all its legends. They could fill a stadium in the middle of the desert on the hottest day of the year.

Meanwhile, the Meadowlands is just a fantastic place to watch a football game and the press facilities are second to none.

Notre Dame appeared to be lacking a player or two from being a great football team. They've got size and strength, but they may lack a step or two in the quickness department. They are very mechanical and proficient in their blocking schemes, but they lack that game-breaker at running back.

Ken MacAfee is THE best tight end in football. Army's Clennie Brundidge isn't too far behind when it comes to catching and blocking ability.

However, Ross Browner, last season's most-decorated lineman hasn't impressed us this season. Granted, he's a super player, but he's getting doubled a lot and when the play does come his way he's not really crunching people.

Notre Dame people are pushing Browner for the Heisman which is ridiculous. They've always been notorious for glamorizing too many players.

Moose Krause, ND athletic director, told us,

A major happening

"Ross has played exceptionally well considering how many people have tried to block him each week. Most of the teams are running away from him, too."

Nice try, Moose, but he still can't play the option and is he really going all out???

The average Notre Dame fan still isn't too pleased with Dan Devine as the head coach. He really doesn't fit the Notre Dame image. Between Devine and Army's Homer Smith they'd tie for second in a two-man personality contest. It reflects on the field as neither can motivate their personnel.

Should Notre Dame terminate Devine's contract, the leading contender is Dolphins' Don Shula. He wanted the post when Ara Parseghian bowed out.

We've always felt there were two different kind of Notre Dame fans, the loyal worshippers and the ones that celebrate when ever the Irish take it on the chin. They don't have in-betweens.

CLIPBOARD NOTES: We were one of five scribes helping to select the top offensive and defensive player of the game for the Irish Radio network and Lazy-boy Chairs...While we've never been a ND fan we always admired Coach Frank Leahy and still rank him as the No. 1 collegiate coach we've seen.

Hewas the "Master"...We look for USC to hand Notre Dame its second defeat of the season this Saturday.

Watched Lake-Lehman-GAR encounter on WNEP-TV Sunday morning and the Knights just couldn't halt the passing of Grenadiers' Dan Kish in bowing 22-zip. GAR appears to have Division 2 locked up...Dallas and Lake-Lehman failed to score a point on GAR...

The fans were surprised at GAR's seemingly easy defeat of the Knights. GAR led by only 6-0 at the half but the Grenadiers were moving the ball well and had twice as much yardage as the Knights at the half.

The Grenadiers earned their six points on a four-yard run by Dave Griffith with two minutes remaining in the half.

Ernie Slocum's long punts and an interception by Jim Spencer were the only factors which kept the Knights in fair field position in the first half.

Early in the third period Dave Konsavage intercepted a Lake-Lehman pass on the Knights 35 yard line. Don Kish completed to Tom Doughter to the 11 yard line and two plays later Kish hit Doughter again for a touchdown. Kish's pass to John Henderson for two points clicked and the Grenadiers were in the lead 14-0. GAR had four interceptions during the second half which stopped Lake-Lehman drives. It was an interception that set up the Grenadiers third and final touchdown of the game.

Taking possession on his own 23 yard line, Kish led a nine play march for 77 yards for a touchdown. His pass to Perry Tolbert was good and the Grenadiers were 22-0 on the board.

GAR's defense kept the Knights' Bert Balliet from scoring for the first time this season.

The win guaranteed GAR at least a tie for the Division II title. They need a win over Hanover Friday night to keep their last year's crown.

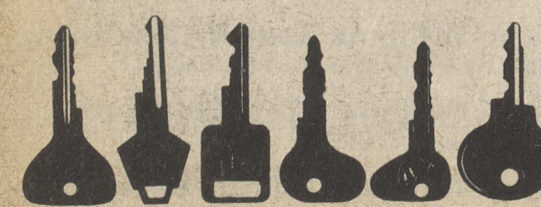

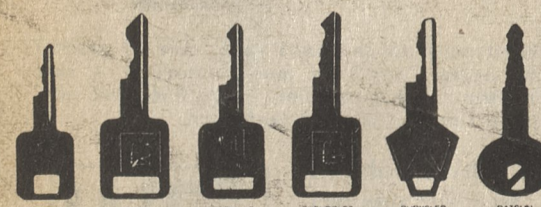

The Knights play Wyoming Area Friday night at the Warriors stadium with game time at 7:30 p.m.

Wholl loan you the keys to a new car?

What's your pleasure? Want to move up to something bigger? Move down to an economy car? A wagon for the family? Or maybe something sporty? You pick the car. We will work out the financing. At The Willing Bank, you have two ways to go on an auto loan. First, you can shop for the car you want, then tell your dealer you want us to finance it. He'll take it from there.
