Wyoming Seminary News

by Nina Taggert
Tigers

It looks like the Tigers may capture the championship again this year. Amy Pearsall, Dallas, Liz Kluger, Molly Davies, Dallas, Hilary Maslow, Jennifer Maslow, Dallas and Tish Mack all scored against Myers for a decisive 6-1 victory.

German Club

The recently elected German Club officers for this year are the following: Dawn Siff, president; Bill Burak, Shavertown, vice-president; and treasurer, Dave Schwager.

Trips

Tickets are available for the New York Jets vs. Miami Dolphins game on Nov. 6. The cost is $12. You can also sign up to see U.S. Pro Tennis (men's) at the Spectrum on Jan. 28, cost is $6. More information can be obtained from the Activities office.

Reminders

Halloween Dress Up-Down Day was Oct. 31. All boys who want to try out for wrestling were asked to report for practice on Tuesday. Basketball practice started on Monday for the boys.

Everyman

Tuesday's chapel was a presentation of the medieval morality play Everyman. The play, under the direction of Chaplain Pall, starred Barry Scott as Everyman. One of the highlights of the performance was the appearance of Mr. Lull, Dean of Students, as God.

Dedication

The dedication ceremonies for the Harold C Buckingham Performing Arts Center were held on Friday prior to the first performance in the dedication series. A Workshop for all Seminary students was given by the performers, Celeste Holm and Wesley Addy. "With Love and Laughter" was the title of the play. An enthusiastic near capacity crowd was on hand for the performance.

All Stars

The Blue Knights are going strong with their undefeated record this year. They showed why when they beat Perkomen last Saturday. Gaining over 100 yards for the Knights was Kurt Lettow. Tim McTavish helped out by intercepting 34 yards for a touchdown.
