

Lehman woman speaks

Beverly M. Schwartz of Lehman will be principal speaker at a humanities program offered by the Marietta (Ohio) Public Library on Nov. 4. Her talk is entitled "The American Family: Then and Now."

It is the fifth in a series, "The American Family in the Arts," jointly sponsored by the Marietta Public Library and the Ohio Program in the Humanities.

A resident of Lehman, Mrs. Schwartz lived in Ohio from 1964 to 1977. Now art director of Major Advertising Agency, she has taught children's literature at Marietta College and Parkersburg (West Virginia) Community College.

She is a graduate of Lake Lehman High School, Wilkes College, and University of Pennsylvania. She is the daughter of Bryce Major and the late Ruth Major of Lehman.

FAITH AND MERCY—Dr. F. Budd Schooley, above, of Lake Street, Dallas, presents, a copy of his latest book, "Faith and Mercy," to College Misericordia president Sister Ann Miriam Gallagher, RSM. Dr. Schooley has donated a number of the books to Misericordia to be sold as fund-raiser for the college. The college will offer the books to its alumni as well as to the general public. The 374-page book is a collection of memorabilia of both the college and the Wyoming Valley in general. Hundreds of photographs in the book depict early Misericordia scenes and current Back Mountain events. Included are the Sweet Valley Memorial Day parade, the bicentennial celebration, and a number of historical photos from the Back Mountain. Some of the photos were reproduced from glass negatives, including an overview of Wilkes-Barre that shows the canal. Copies of the book are available by contacting the Director of Annual Funds at Misericordia.
