Rowland Ritts observe 35th anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland R. Ritts, Sr., Oak Hill, celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary on Nov. 9. They were married Nov. 9, 1942, in St. Patrick's Church, Wilkes-Barre, by the Rev. F. Roach.

Their attendants were Mrs. Ritts' sister, Dorothy Shore, Detroit, Mich., maid of honor; and Richard Kaiser, Wilkes-Barre, best man.

Mrs. Ritts is the former Marie Johns, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Johns, Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ritts of Kingston.

The couple has one son, Rowland, Jr., married to the former Alyce Ann Donachie. They also have three grandchildren, Rowland, III, student at Bishop O'Reilly; Lynnette Ann and Richard, students at Gate of Heaven.

Ritts is owner of Ritts Sunoco Service, Kingston.

Lehman-Jackson school sponsors Book Fair

The Lehman-Jackson Elementary School in Lehman, will sponsor a student book fair from Nov. 11 to Nov. 17. Students will be able to browse and purchase books. The book fair will be open during the hours of 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Books will be on display in the elementary library.

The book fair committee invites all parents to attend during the regular library period. The fair will encourage student interest in reading and in building home libraries, and will also contribute to a worthwhile project. All profits will be used toward the purchase of a laminating machine for the school.

The Lehman-Jackson elementary library is sponsoring the fair, assisted by the PTA. School librarian, Mrs. Marjorie Cosgrove, and Jane Goodwin, will serve as co-charmen.

The book fair display will include attractive new books from many publishers in all popular price ranges: wonderful books to read or to give as gifts. All reading interests will be represented, including classics, fiction, biographies, adventure stories, science, nature, crafts, mystery and reference books. The committee is working with Educational Reading Service, a professional book fair company, to furnish an individual selection of books for the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Kadelock

Mitchell, Kadelock wed at Tunkhannock

Nativity of the Blessed Virgin Mary of Tunkhannock was the setting for October 15 wedding of Miss Marlene Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchell, 114 Redfield St., Tunkhannock to Stephen Kadelock of 975 Perry Court, Hazleton.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. John Casey, pastor of the NBVM. The altar was decorated with large white chrysanthemums and pompons.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a traditionally styled wedding gown of Salalustre organza and imported Venise lace. Beaded Venise lace trimmed the bodice and long sleeves of her gown which featured a high neckline over a sheer yoke, an untrimmed empire-easy skirt and an attached chapel-length train. To compliment her wedding gown the bride chose a walking-length Spanish Mantilla in illusion edged in imported Venise lace and attached to a Camelot frame. She carried a white satin and lace covered Bible with a white orchid, stephanotis and ivy.

Miss Catherine Mitchell, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was attired in an elegant green gown of polyester knit. Featuring a slant-V neckline, long fitted sleeves and a self-belt at the slightly lifted waistline which swagged off the hip.

To complement her gown, she chose a horsehair picture hat trimmed with matching knit covering both crown and streamers.

Miss Linda Mitchell, bridesmaid, sister of the bride, wore a long sleeve spice gown of polyester knit. Self gathers of knit high-lighted the Queen Ann neckline of her criss-cross bodice. Her gown also featured long fitted sleeves and an empire-easy skirt. She wore a horsehair picture hat trimmed with matching knit covering both crown and streamers.

The maid of honor and bridesmaid carried baroque styled classic round bouquets of green and bronze pompons with baby breath and fall oak leaves.

Mother of the bride, wore a long sleeve light tan gown of polyester knit, featuring an empire bodice with a V-neckline. Slight gathers at the midriff gently into an easy skirt. The front of the bodice and cuffs of her long fitted sleeves were accented with gold bead and pearl handsewn trim. Maribori trimmed the wrist-cuff of the outer tier of the double sleeve. She wore a corsage of white cymbidium orchids.

Following the double ring ceremony, a reception was held at Shadow Brook Inn.

Both the bride and the groom are employed by the Wilkes-Barre Publishing Company. They will reside in Dallas.
