

OAK HILL

Who stole Santa Claus?

by Bridgette Correale
In celebration of Vin Correale's birthday, a dinner party was held in his honor. Enjoying each others company were: Charlie and Eileen Batka;

Jack and Mariann Cleary, Ray and Julie Iwanowski, Tom and Jayne Yoniski, and of course, yours truly, the Julia Child of Mulberry Street.
All I have to say is that the women's questions were much better than the men's. All except Eileen!!!! Right Jayne? Sorry to learn that Leo Bartz is a medical patient at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital. Sincere condolences are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Fritzgerald upon the death of Mr. Fritz' brother in Warren, Pa.

(which in itself is a miracle) and everyone was in a joyful mood.

The boxes came tumbling from the attic. The tree was stabbed together, lights were tested and still everyone was merryming. Not bad considering three children working together and a husband who kept having to stop his own project because, "Vin this set of lights went out again."

Now if you are anything like me-you want the tree just so. Every branch is covered with a spray of lights, ornaments covering the spray of lights and garland covering the ornaments. In other words, no room for the green to show through.

Well after eight hours of telling "Adele, tone down on the organ," "Louis, I don't care how terrific 'Kiss Alive' is" and George please go visit Aunt Yo," we finished decorating the tree and number 1-it's standing straight. Number 2-it looks pretty nice. Number 3-we'll be the only family who has their tree up till Easter...tis the season!
