

Jaycees note week seeking members

Back Mt. Jaycees President Don Rood this week announced that the local civic group will participate in the observance of Jaycee Week, Jan. 15-21.

Jaycee Week is a traditional observance by the nation's 350,000 Jaycees in more than 8,500 communities. Jaycees across the country will be celebrating their 58th anniversary that week.

Prior to the Jaycee Week observance, the United States Jaycees will recognize America's Ten Outstanding Young Men of 1978 at their main headquarters in Tulsa, Okla.

Charles Kishbaugh, past president of the Back Mt. Club, is serving as chairman of the local organization.

The Jaycees offer young men an opportunity for personal development and leadership and to better the community in which they live. The Back Mountain Jaycees offer individual development programs and run numerous projects to benefit the community.

Current activities include glass recycling, children's films, the Back Mountain Marathon and Health Fair, and support for developing Girvan's Field into a park. They also lend assistance to the Library Auction, Fall Fair, Toys for Tots, Back Mountain Recreation Council, drug and Alcohol Abuse, Little League Umpiring, Folk Arts Festival, Blood Drive, Juvenile Diabetes and award annual scholarships.

Social functions are held throughout the year along with sports and recreational activities.

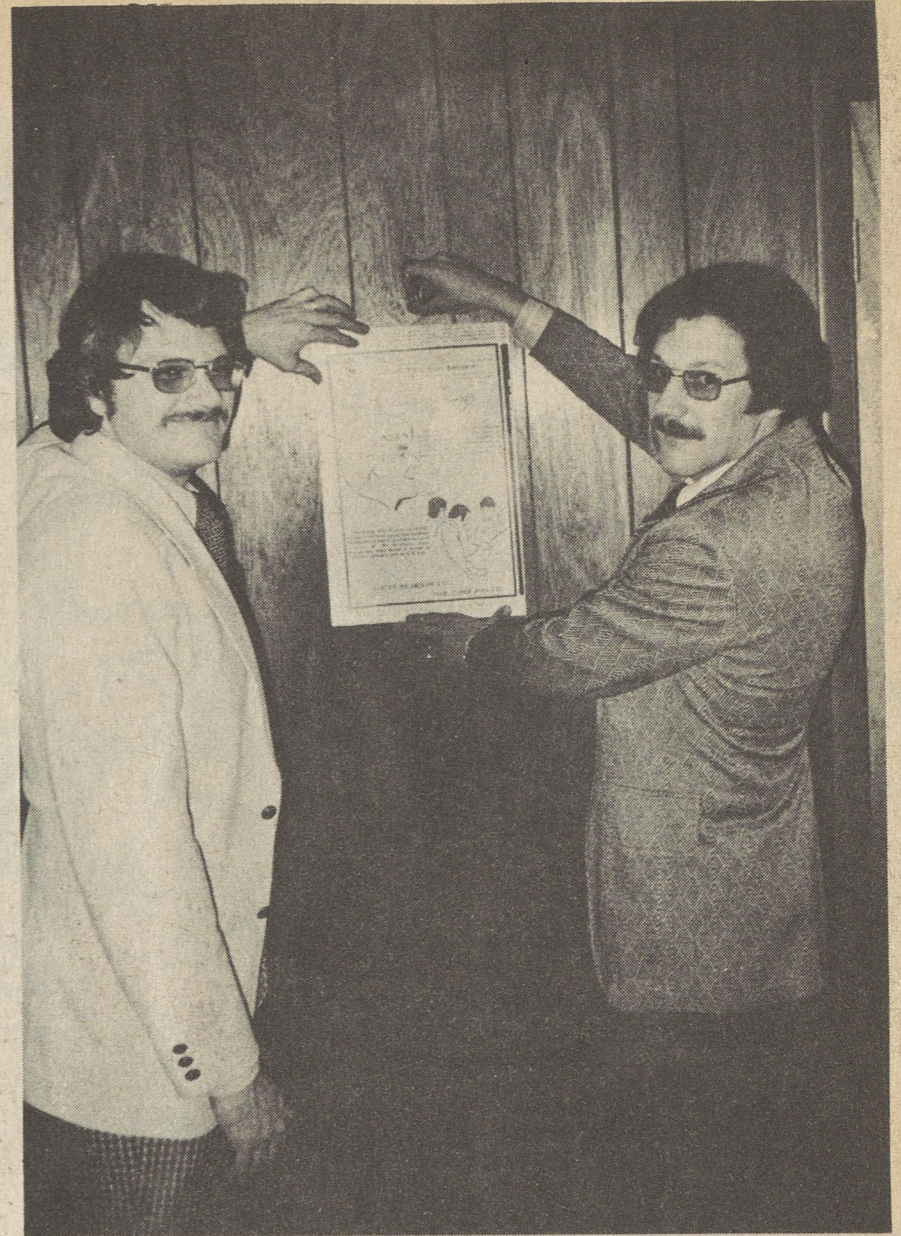

The local Jaycees believe the Jaycee Week theme, that "Young Men Can Change the World". All young men between the age of 18 and 35 are invited to join the local group in their programs of self-development and community service.

Membership meetings are the first Tuesday of every month at Irem Temple Country Club at 7:30 p.m. The next meeting will be February 7, 1978.

For additional information contact Kishbaugh, membership chairman 675-5155.

Prospective members may fill out the application below and mail it to: Back Mountain Jaycees, P.O. Box 217, Dallas, Pa. 18612.

State Capitol ROUNDUP

THE HOUSE CONVENED ON Jan. 3, 1978, for the 162nd session of the Pennsylvania General Assembly. After announcing that the next four weeks will be devoted to committee meetings, the Speaker adjourned the House until January 30, when the Senate is also scheduled to reconvene for voting sessions.

THE HOUSE HEALTH AND WELFARE COMMITTEE has sent to the full House legislation (already passed by the Senate) to remove local governments' rights to ban group homes in residential areas.

NUMEROUS OTHER COMMITTEE MEETINGS are scheduled during the upcoming weeks. Important pieces of legislation to be discussed include: A possible gasoline hike to finance highway repairs and new construction; the State's death penalty statute; "Sunset" laws and a zero-based system of State budgeting.

A HOUSE INVESTIGATION INTO ORGANIZED CRIME and official corruption suffered a setback when the staff of the Governor's Justice Commission rejected a subcommittee's request for $300,000 in Federal funds.

—OTHER ITEMS OF INTEREST ON CAPITOL HILL INCLUDED:

—The 1978 Republican campaign for Governor has been narrowed field of four major candidates with the withdrawal of U.S. Senator Richard Schweiker from consideration, leaving Robert Butera, Richard Thornburgh, Senator Henry Hager and Arlen Specter in the race.

—1978 property tax, rent rebate claims, from qualified persons who were unable to meet the June 30, 1977 deadline, will be paid until January 30, 1978, according to the State Revenue Department.

—The State Public Utility Commission will investigate the possibility of low-cost air service within the Commonwealth, an action which could mean cheaper air fares between Pennsylvania cities.

Connell warns of strict truck weight laws

Rep. Frank J. O'Connell, R-Luzerne, today urged Pennsylvania truck owners to immediately become familiar with the state's new laws on truck weights in order to avoid costly finances and dangerous driving situations.

O'Connell said he can provide truck owners with a brochure entitled "Is your Truck Weight Legal?" He said owners can receive the pamphlet by writing him, Rep. O'Connell P.O. Box 58, House of Representatives, Main Capitol Building, Harrisburg, Pa. 17120.

O'Connell said the goal of the strict enforcement of the new weight limits for trucks is to make the highways safer for all motorists and help reduce highway maintenance costs.

Retreat federal employees to hear O'Connell

Chapter 342 of the National Association of Retired Federal Employees (NARFE) at Wilkes-Barre, will hold their regular monthly meeting at Pomeroy's Community Room, Wyoming Valley Mall, on Friday, Jan. 20 at 1 p.m. All Federal Retirees in the Back Mountain area are invited to attend.

Guest speaker at the January meeting will be State Legislator, Frank J. O'Connell, Jr. An agent of the Internal Revenue Service will attend the February meeting for a question and answer session.

Chapter 342 is open for membership to all former government workers. For further information call 287-6844.

New recruiter

The Marine Corps recruiting office located in Wilkes Barre has announced that Marine Sergeant Robert R. Payne will be the new Marine recruiter in this area.

He is originally from Fort Worth Texas, and he attended Marine basic training at San Diego, Calif.
