

Dallas matmen lose in regionals

Dallas Mountaineers will have to wait another year to vie for a state wrestling title following the defeat of the six grapplers who qualified for the regional tournament at William-sport last weekend.

None of the six made it beyond the quarter-finals on Friday night. 98-lb. Mark Carter was upended by Rich Santor of Bethlehem Catholic in 4:50. Scott Davis was shut out 10-0 by 112-lb. Rick Negrete of Bethlehem Freedom.

126-lb Lou Capuano of Bethlehem Liberty out-wrestled Mount Andy Pinter 7-0 and 132-lb. Jon Davis was clamped in 5:58 by Dave Farver of Berwick.

Sophomore Sean Kavanaugh was beaten 15-3 by last year's title winner

Steve Greenley of Milton. 185-lb. junior Ken Kuderka was defeated by Tim Delong of Easton in a 10-2 bout.

Local fans who witnessed Friday night's action were impressed by the excellent physical condition of the grapplers from the Bethlehem-Easton area.

Charles De Graffenreid and Frank Castrigano, both of Meyers, were the only District 2 Division AAA matmen to capture titles. They will be joined at states by John Brennan of Valley West and Meyers Andy Kuhl, second place winners and Brian Morgan, Coughlin, and Jay Patterson of Meyers, third place finishers.

The three men in each weight class advance to states.

Pack 281 holds Blue and Gold dance

Pack 281 held its Blue and Gold Dinner at the Dallas Jr. High School on Thursday, Feb. 16. Cubmaster Dick Rogers introduced the guests for the evening: Rev. Douglas Akers, pastor of the Dallas United Methodist Church; John Pirello, District II executive of the Penn Mountain Council; Robert Schooley, Troop 281 scoutmaster, and Bruce Davies, institutional representative. Other special guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Saracino and son; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ludwig and son; and Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Smith.

Rogers presented a check to Rev. Akers in
