OAK HILL

Hooray...Springtime

by Bridgette Corrae
SPRINGTIME—a time for music, love, flowers and a good bottle of wine. Hooray...never thought it would get here, but it did and almost everyone is sparkling. I myself haven't stopped singing or humming that my youngsters keep looking at me with a funny expression.

An expression like, "Is this the calm before the storm?" or "Did she really go to work today?" Yes, my children, this is the real me.

Getting back to business...Jet and Jim Cook have recently returned from a vacation in Orlando, Fla., and Bill Wasser spent several weeks in Florida visiting his granddaughter and family. Grateful to them for bringing us the sunshine.

Birthday greetings to my dear friend Elly Thompson who will celebrate her 29th birthday March 22. Believe that and I'll tell you another.

George just ran in from outside asking, "Mom, do you have a color marker?" "Yes." "Would you put my name on this rubber ball. You know George Corrae." I must really look far-out today.

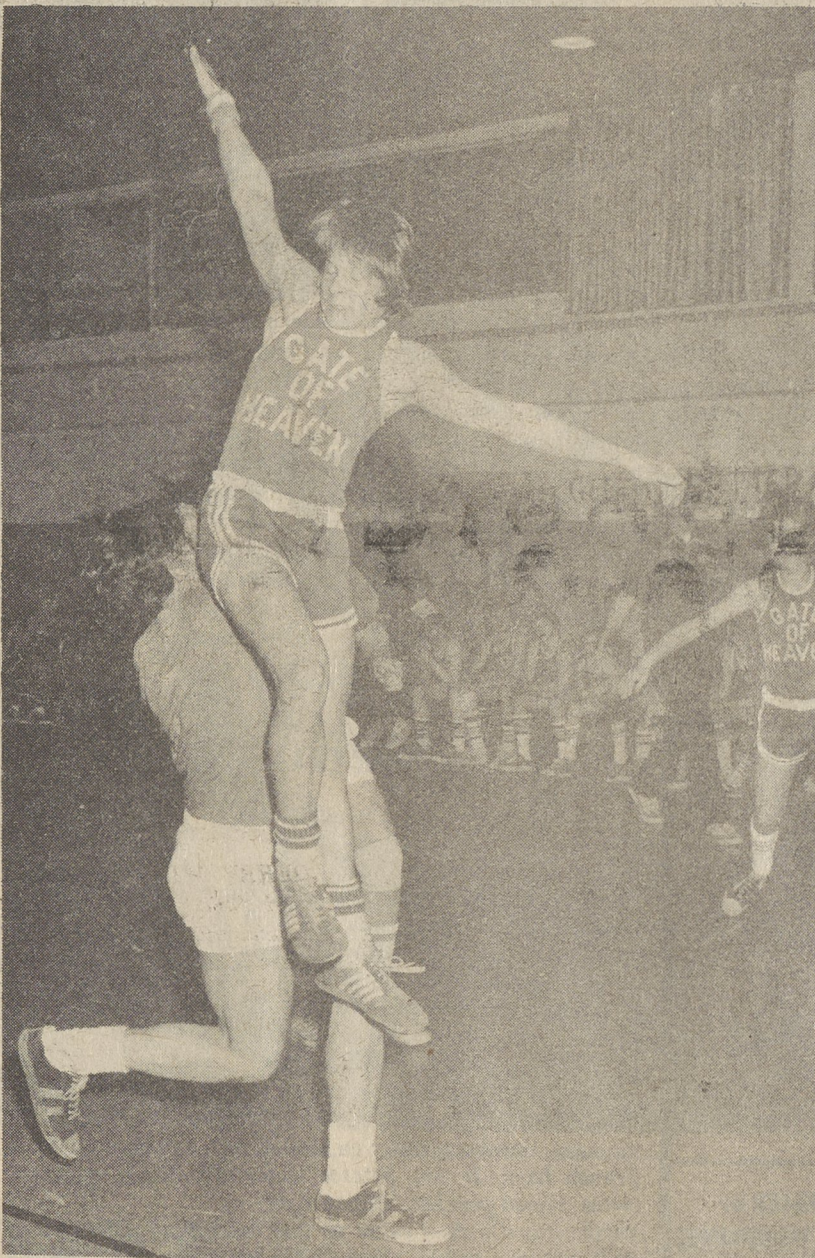

Cub Pack 232 will conduct its monthly pack meeting Thursday, March 30, at Gate of Heaven auditorium. The theme of the evening is a penny carnival with each Den designing and building their own booth.

Who wore a green shamrock on his jockey shorts? Not I said Mr. I. Heard that half of Dallas celebrated St. Patty's Day at the Flagstone House, Harveys Lake, Friday evening and whether you were Irish or not, you had a ball.

Happy birthday to Bernadette Oley whose big day is March 23 and to Louise Menapace, March 28.

Saturday evening many familiar faces were seen at the Bishop O'Reilly annual spring concert. It was so nice to see all the boys in tuxedos and girls in gowns of pastel colors. But that feeling had to grow on me cause when I saw our Louis all decked out, I was sad. Our boy is growing up. Vin said, "You feel sad, what must I say, at 14 Louis is dressed up in silk tux, ruffled shirt, I wore my first tux when we were married and I've been strapped in ever since." Under the heart he's gonna get it.

"Come fly with me..."

L-J PTA holds Easter egg hunt

The Lehman-Jackson Elementary PTA held their first Easter Egg Hunt on Friday March 10, from 6:30 to 8 p.m. at the Lehman-Jackson elementary school.

Hundreds of wrapped bubble gum Easter eggs were hidden in a pile of straw on the cafeteria floor.

Forty-eight prizes were given to children who found the prize bubble gum eggs. The prize-winning eggs had a number attached to the wrapper.

Chairpersons for the event were Phil and Nancy Stark, and Alma McLaughlin from Town and Country Manor, and Janice Lopasky from Huntsville. Mrs. Lopasky arranged for the Easter Bunny to visit with the children, and for many this was the highlight of the event.

Over 500 children attended the egg hunt.
