

'Children in Peril' topic of Gate PTA

The regular meeting of the Gate of Heaven Parent Teacher Guild will take place on April 25, at 8 p.m. The meeting will be held in the school auditorium.

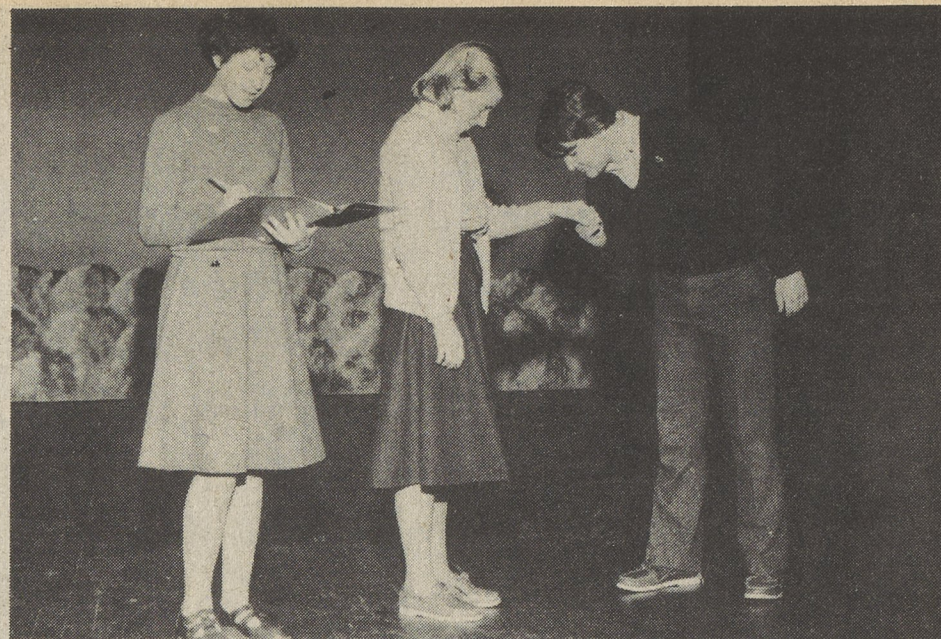

Program Chairman Mrs. Donald Thompson has arranged for Ms. Marcella Kelly, from the speakers bureau of the Bi-County Council of Child Abuse, to present the film "Children in Peril."

Mrs. Theresa Thompson, refreshment committee chairman, will have the mothers of the fourth grade students be the hostesses for the evening.

The guild is also sponsoring a "Night at the Races" on Saturday April 22, at 8:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Seagrave-Daly are the chair couple for the event.

All persons more than 21 are welcome to attend and enjoy the program for the evening. Refreshments and hot dogs will be served and are included in the cost of admission. Tickets may be purchased at the door.

HOPPLY EVER AFTER—The Frog, played by Rebecca Smith, Dallas, turns into a Princess at the kiss of the hand by the Prince played by Richard Hughes, III, Mountaintop. Looking over the script is (left) Lois Meyer, Kingston, stage manager. The scene will be part of the play "Hoppily Ever After" being performed by the Wyoming Seminary Players on April 14 (Friday) at 7 p.m., April 15 (Saturday) 2 p.m. and April 16 (Sunday) 2 p.m. in the Harold C. Buckingham Performing Arts Center on the Seminary Campus. Another play "Odette and Kedar" written and directed by Erica Schwarz, '78 Shavertown, will also be presented in the "A Visit to the Storybook Kingdom" production for area children. Tickets will be on sale at the door at 50 cents for children, $1 for adults.

Parents participate in Dallas career project

More than 75 parents of Dallas Junior High School students in Grades 7 and 9 have been participating in a series of workshops planned to acquaint them with VEDA, a career education project for junior high students that was developed locally with the cooperation of the Pennsylvania Department of Vocational Education.

Patrick O'Brien, William Roberts, Anne Seitz, Mary Ann Sigworth, William Straitiff, Becky Schuster and Robert Suppon.

In each workshop session time is provided for parents and teachers to participate in small group discussions.

The Lake-Lehman Band Sponsors will hold their regular monthly meeting at the High School on Tuesday, April 18 at 7:30 p.m.

This will be the last meeting before the band trip to the International Azalea Festival in Norfolk, Va.

Tuzinski, Davis spelling champs

The Westmoreland PTO held their first annual third and fourth grade spelling bees on Wednesday, April 5, at the Westmoreland Elementary School. Trisha Tuzinski won the third grade spelling bee championship and received a trophy, a first place ribbon, and a gift certificate. Trisha is the daughter of Frank and Cecelia Tuzinski, 42 E. Franklin St., Shavertown. Trisha is a member of Brownie Troop 657 and enjoys reading as a hobby. Trisha's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tuzinski, Ashley and Mr. William Hufford, Larksville.

Scott Francis placed second and received a third place ribbon and a gift certificate. Other students participating in the third grade event were Donna Piatt, Melanie Coscia, Molly Grasso, Allison Fry, Kristen McHenry, Cathy Zikor, Dawn Smith, Maureen Wisnieski, and Adam Tillman.

Darci Davis copped the fourth grade spelling bee championship. She received a trophy, a first place ribbon and a gift certificate. Darci plays the violin and enjoys acrobatics and recently moved into the area along with her parents from Modesto, Calif. The Davises are formerly from Sweet Valley and graduates of Lake-Lehman High School. Darci's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Davis, Hunlock Creek and Mrs. Ann Farver, Sweet Valley.

Stacie Pierce placed second and Marilyn Ward finished third in the fourth grade competition. Both girls received ribbons and gift certificates for their efforts. Other students participating in the fourth grade event were Bryan Mathers, Maureen Riley, Molly Greenwood, Jim Hudak, Tim Corcoran, Wally Gauthier, Rob Dombek, Doug Turner, and Dick Connolly.
